Collection Arrangements

Paid for items will be available to collect from Forum Auctions' premises at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS BY PRIOR APPOINTMENT. Collection appointments can be made with info@forumauctions.co.uk. Please note that parking is available and we do not fall into the London congestion zone. We can help arrange packing and shipping of purchased lots, or clients may use their own carrier. We respectfully ask all buyers to settle invoices promptly.

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR BUYERS AT AUCTION

1. Introduction. The following notices are intended to assist buyers, particularly those that are new to our saleroom and internet bidding platforms. Our auctions are governed by our Terms and Conditions of Business incorporating the Terms of Consignment, the Terms of Sale supplemented by any notices that are displayed in our saleroom, the online catalogue listing or announced by the auctioneer at the auction. Our Terms and Conditions of Business are available for inspection at our saleroom and online at www.forumauctions.co.uk. Our staff will be happy to help you with any questions you may have regarding our Terms and Conditions of Business. Please make sure that you read our Terms of Sale set out in this catalogue and on our website carefully before bidding in the auction. In registering to bid with us you are committing to be bound by our Terms of Sale.
2. Agency. As auctioneers we usually act on behalf of the seller whose identity, for reasons of confidentiality, is not normally disclosed. If you buy at auction your contract for the goods is with the seller, not with us as auctioneer.
3. Estimates. Estimates are intended to indicate the hammer price that a particular lot may achieve. The lower estimate may represent the reserve price (the minimum price for which a lot may be sold) and cannot be below the reserve price. Estimates do not include the buyer's premium, VAT or other taxes and fees (where chargeable). Estimates may be altered by a saleroom notice.
4. Buyer's Premium. The Terms of Sale oblige you to pay a buyer's premium on the hammer price of each lot purchased. All lots are offered under the Auctioneer's Margin Scheme and VAT (at 20%) is included within the buyer's premium. Our rate of buyer's premium is 30% of the first £300,000 of the hammer price, reducing to 24% of the hammer price from £300,001 to £5,000,000 and then 15% of the hammer price in excess of £5,000,000. Buyers wishing to purchase lots outside the margin scheme must notify us and will be subject to VAT (currently at 20%) on the hammer price in addition to buyer's premium (and other applicable charges) which may be reclaimed as input VAT or in the event of export outside the EU.
5. Items with zero rated VAT. Please note that no VAT is added to the buyers' premium on certain zero rated goods, such as qualifying books.
6. Inspection of goods by the buyer. You will have ample opportunity to inspect the goods and must do so for any lots that you might wish to bid for. Please note carefully the exclusion of liability for the condition of lots set out in Clauses 5 and 8 of our Terms of Sale.
7. Export of goods. If you intend to export goods you must find out in advance if
 - a. there is a prohibition on exporting goods of that character e.g. if the goods contain prohibited materials such as ivory
 - b. they require an Export Licence on the grounds of exceeding a specific age and/or monetary value threshold as set by the Export Licensing unit. We are happy to make the submission of necessary applications on behalf of our buyers but we will charge for this service only to cover the costs of our time.
8. Bidding. Bidders will be required to register with us before bidding. Purchases will be invoiced to the buyer's registered name and address only. When first registering for an account with us you will need to provide us with proof of your identity in a form acceptable to us. IN REGISTERING TO BID YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY OUR TERMS OF SALE REGARDLESS OF YOUR METHOD OF BIDDING AND IN PLACING A BID YOU ARE MAKING AN IRREVOCABLE AND ENFORCEABLE COMMITMENT TO PURCHASE THE LOT.
9. Commission bidding. You may leave commission bids with us indicating the maximum amount (excluding the buyer's premium and/or any applicable VAT, fees or other taxes) you authorise us to bid on your behalf for a lot. We will execute commission bids at the lowest price possible having regard only to the reserve and other competing bids on the lot. Please note that we accept commission bids at standard bidding increments and reserve the right to reduce an off-increment bid down to the next lowest bidding increment or otherwise at our sole discretion.
10. Live online bidding. When using our BidFORUM platform to participate in the auction through your account on our website there will be no additional charges. If you are using a third party live bidding platform then additional fees may be applicable. We will invoice these to you as an additional service and any applicable VAT will be separated out.
11. Methods of Payment. We accept payments only in the currency in which the invoice is issued and payment is due within 3 working days of the auction. We process card payments securely over our website and accept all major debit and credit cards issued by a UK or EU bank free of charge from personally issued cards only. If paying with a corporate card, or from outside the EU, an additional 3% charge will be levied on the invoice total. We also accept bank transfers, cash payments up to an equivalent of €10,000, and cheques issued by a UK bank. All funds need to have cleared into our account before items are collected. For bank transfers, please quote the Invoice Number as the payee reference:

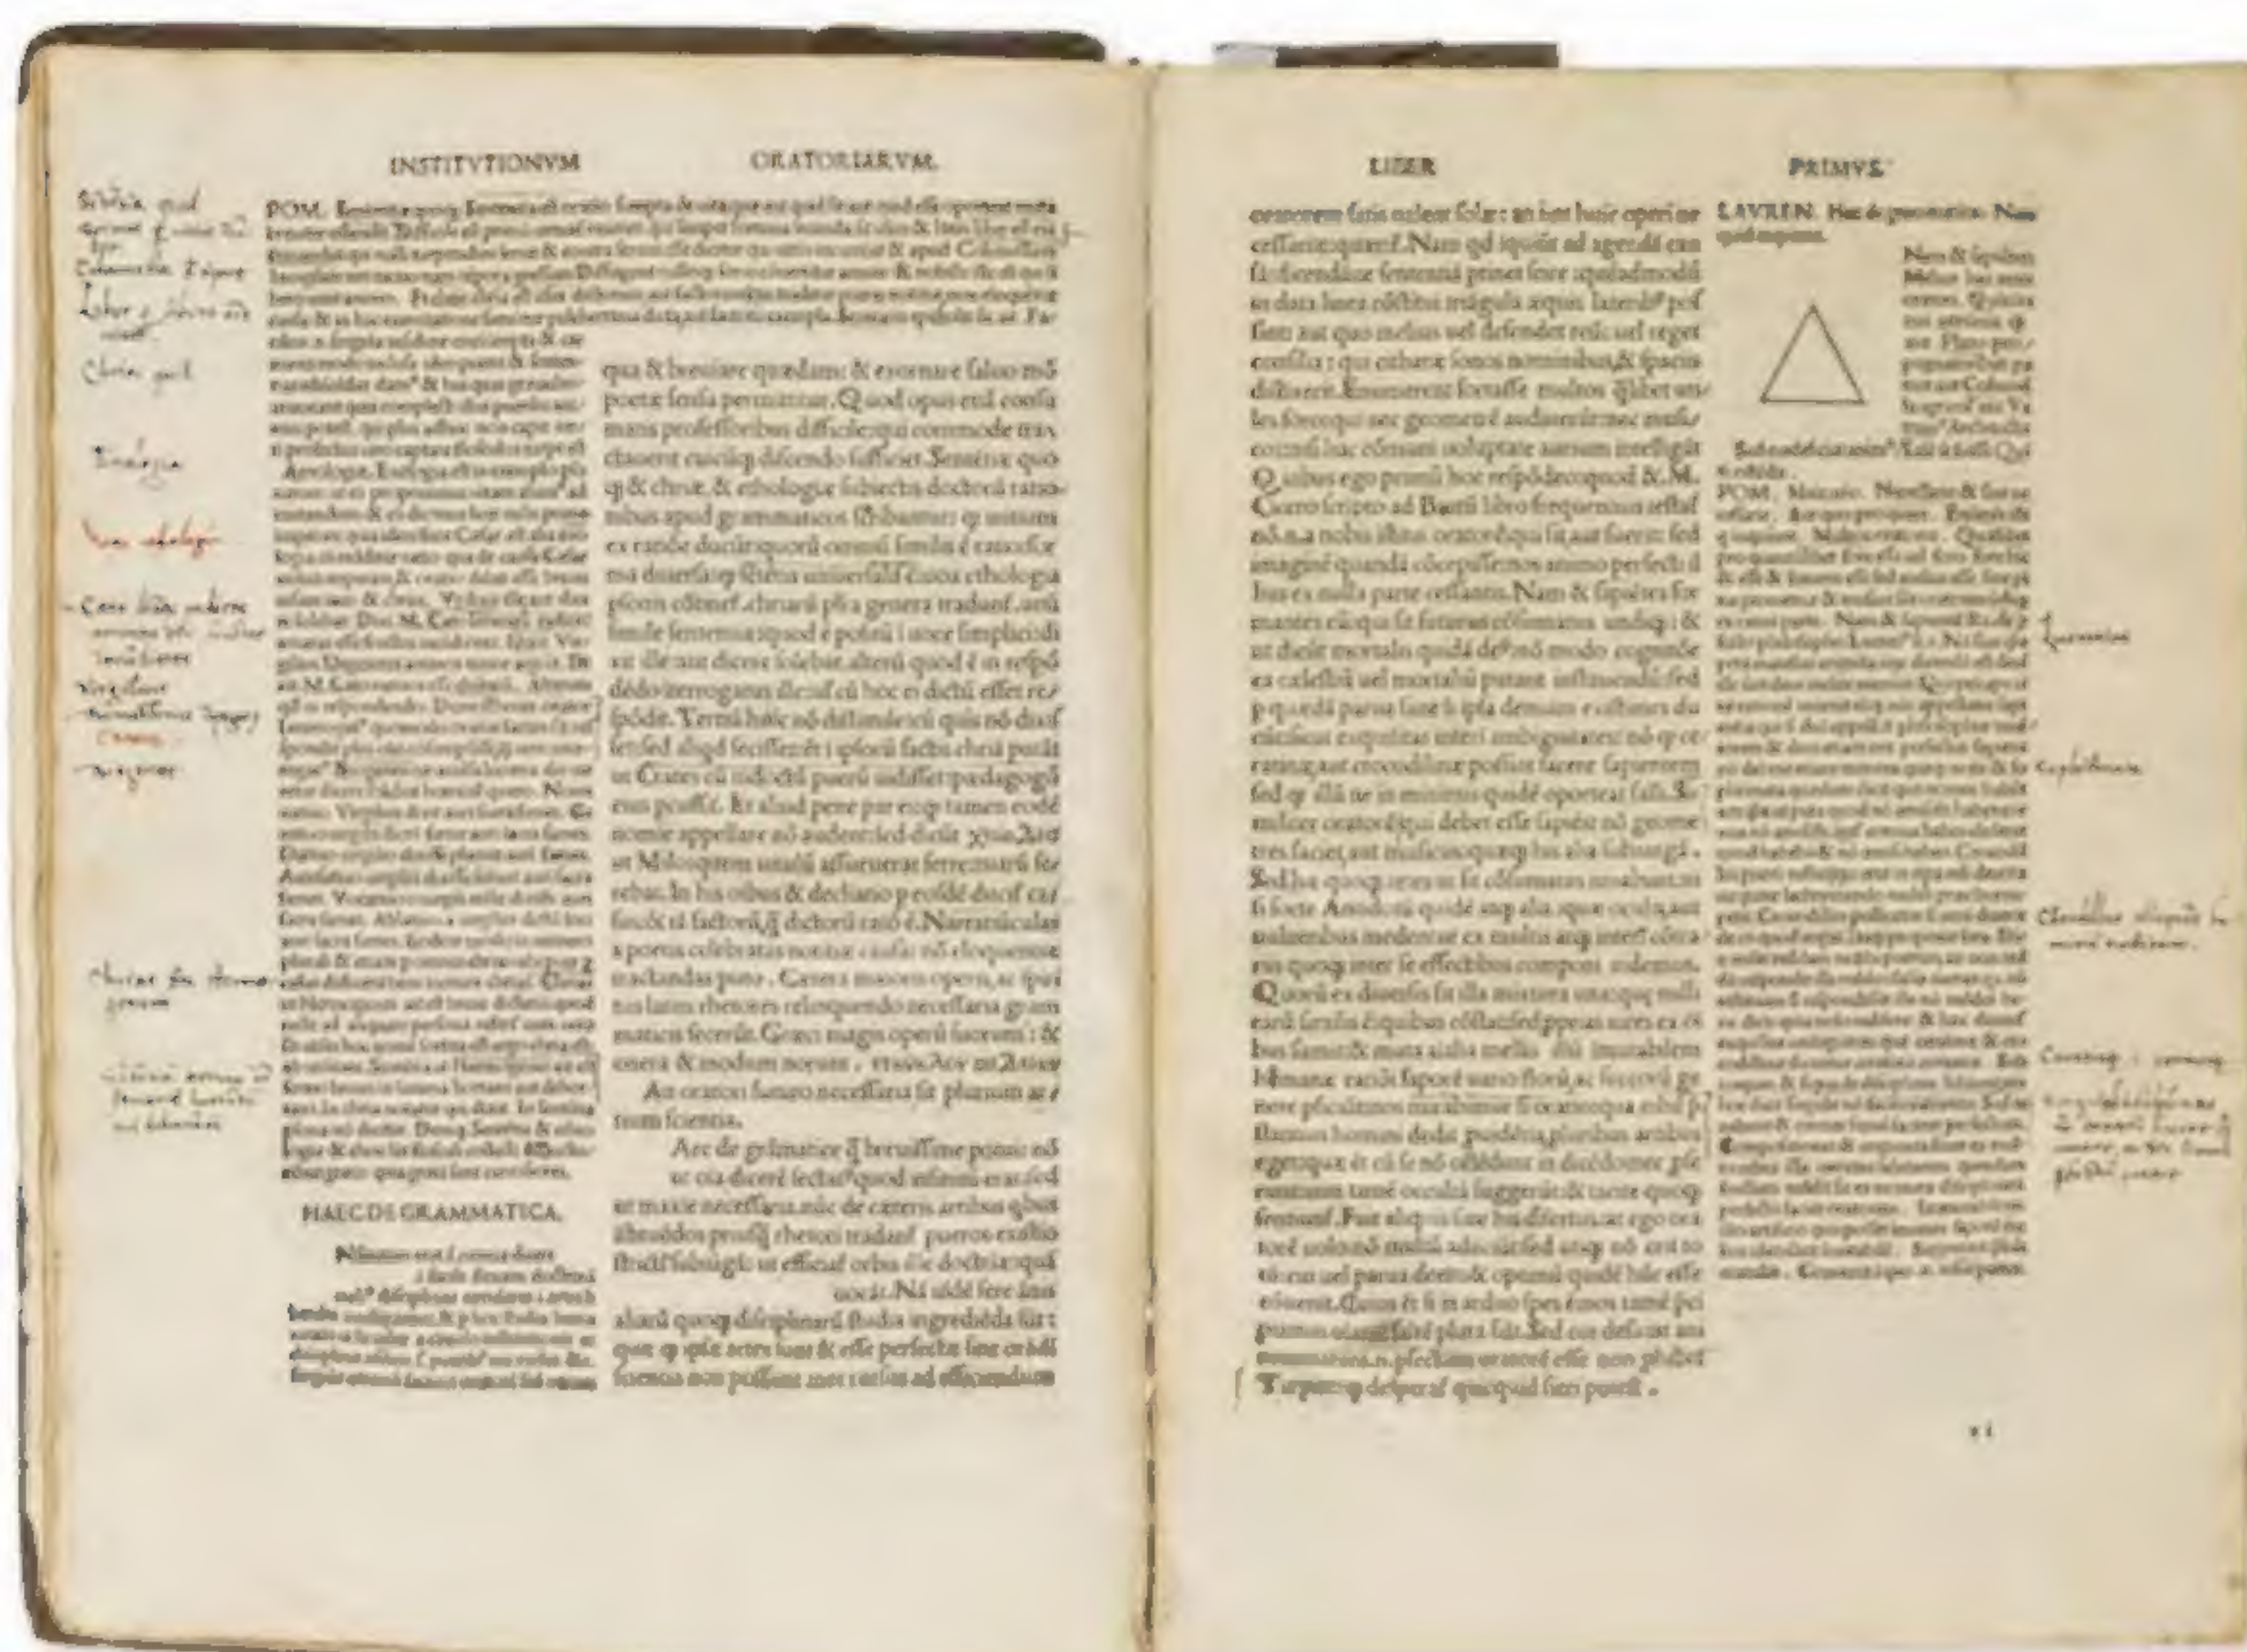

Our bank details for electronic transfers are:

Sort Code: 40-04-09
IBAN: GB44HBUK40040912213079
BIC: HBUKGB4106D
12. Collection and storage. Please note what the Terms of Sale say about collection and storage. It is important that you pay for and collect your goods promptly. Any delay may result in you having to pay storage charges of at least £1.50 per Lot per day as set out in Clause 7 of our Terms of Sale and interest charges of 1.5% per month on the Total Amount Due as set out in Clause 15 of our Terms of Sale.
13. Loss and Damage to Goods. We are not authorised by the FCA to provide insurance services. Liability for a lot passes to the buyer on the fall of the hammer or conclusion of an online auction (as applicable). In the event that you wish for us to continue to accept liability for your purchased lots this must be agreed with us in writing in advance of the sale and any agreed charges are payable before collection of the goods.
14. Symbols within the catalogue
 - a. ARR denotes a lot where Artist's Resale Right or Droit de Suite royalty charges may be applicable to the Lot. Presently these charges are levied on a sliding scale at 4% of the hammer price up to Euro 50,000; 2% from Euro 50,001 to 200,000; 1% from Euro 200,001 to 350,000; 0.5% from Euro 350,001 to 500,000; and 0.25% above Euro 500,000 subject always to a maximum royalty charge of Euro 12,500. We will collect and pay royalty charges on your behalf and calculate the £ sterling equivalent of the Euro amount.
 - b. IMPORT denotes that Import VAT at 5% is payable on the hammer price of the Lot.
 - c. VAT denotes that VAT at 20% is payable on the hammer price, which may be reclaimable as input VAT.
15. Shipping. We can assist with the packing and shipping of your purchases by arrangement with our shipping department. Please contact shipping@forumauctions.co.uk for a list of shippers we regularly use together with indicative pricing for packing and shipping.

✱ First mentioned with docket title: "The duke of Northumberland against Queene marie The Increment of a lone... bee parl by privie seale." A time of political instability, but also financial instability. The crown was heavily in debt, largely due to Henry VIII, a tyrant who not only destroyed England's cultural and religious heritage, but by debasing the coinage, the country's finances as well. Northumberland was driven by expediency to address some of these financial problems.

Elizabeth I's Lord Chancellor.- Hatton (Sir Christopher, courtier and politician, c. 1540-91) & Cecil (Thomas, first Earl of Exeter, courtier and soldier, eldest son of William Cecil, first Baron Burghley, 1542-1623) RELEASE BY SIR THOMAS CECIL & CHRISTOPHER HATTON PRIVY COUNCILLOR AND VICE CHAMBERLAIN TO QUEEN ELIZABETH FOR THE RECTORY, LANDS AND LIVING OF CAMPSALL, YORKSHIRE TO ROBERT FREKE, D.S. "Thomas Cecil", manuscript in Latin, on vellum, wax seal with fine impression, a few small holes along folds, 205 x 460mm., 30th April 1579.

✱ Christopher Hatton was the second son of a squire from Holdenby in Northamptonshire. In 1562, as a student at the Inner Temple he attracted the attention of Elizabeth I and began a career as a courtier. Rising high in the queen's estimation (she gave Hatton the nickname of "lids" or "sheep") he became a privy councillor in 1577, that same year he was made vice-chamberlain of the household and knighted. The above document shows the close relationship Hatton had with the family of William Cecil, Lord Burghley (his nephew Sir William Hatton (c. 1565-97), married the daughter of Thomas Cecil). Hatton was appointed Lord Chancellor in 1587. He died in 1591, associated with much of the high politics of Elizabeth I's reign.

Thomas Cecil held certain lands in Yorkshire from 1577 through his marriage with Dorothy, co-heir of John Nevill, fourth Lord Latimer.

Economics of Foreign Trade.- Cope (Sir Walter, master of the court of wards, 1553?-1614) ENCHIRIDION. CERTAIN BREIFE REMONSTRANCES OFFERED UNTO HIS MATIE... TOUCHING DIVERS INCONVENIENCES GROWNE INTO THE PUBLIQUE WEALE BY MEANES OF THE NETHERLANDES AND OUR OWNE COMPANY OF MERCHANT VENTURERS..., manuscript in one hand in two different styles (title and subtitles in in a fine cursive and text in Secretary hand), title and 17pp., title loose, slightly browned, disbound, [no work by Walter Cope in ESTC], , folio, 1613.

✱ ?AN UNKNOWN WORK BY A PROMINENT OFFICIAL IN THE GOVERNMENTS OF ELIZABETH I AND JAMES I. The manuscript poses a number of economic problems with suggested ways of reforming and dealing with them. It includes the over valuation of money, best way of making money from foreign trade, sales of cloth and wool etc.

Walter Cope became a gentleman usher to William Cecil, Lord Burghley and later served his son, Robert Cecil, Lord Salisbury. Cope made large sums of money as master of the court of wards and was involved in a wide series of financial speculations, not all of them successful. He was also an investor in a number of overseas trading companies, including the Virginia and East India companies, and was much concerned with making the highest of financial returns from his investments.

[Bacon (Francis, Viscount St Alban, Lord Chancellor, politician, and philosopher, 1561-1626)] A LETTER OF ADVISE WRITTEN TO SR EDW. COKE LO: CHIEFE JUSTICE..., manuscript in Secretary hand, 6½pp., first f. loose and with small tear in margin, slightly browned, disbound, Grapes watermark, folio, [?c. 1616].

✱ "AND SO THERE IS A TYME TO SPEAKE & A TIME TO BE SILENT. - Bacon.

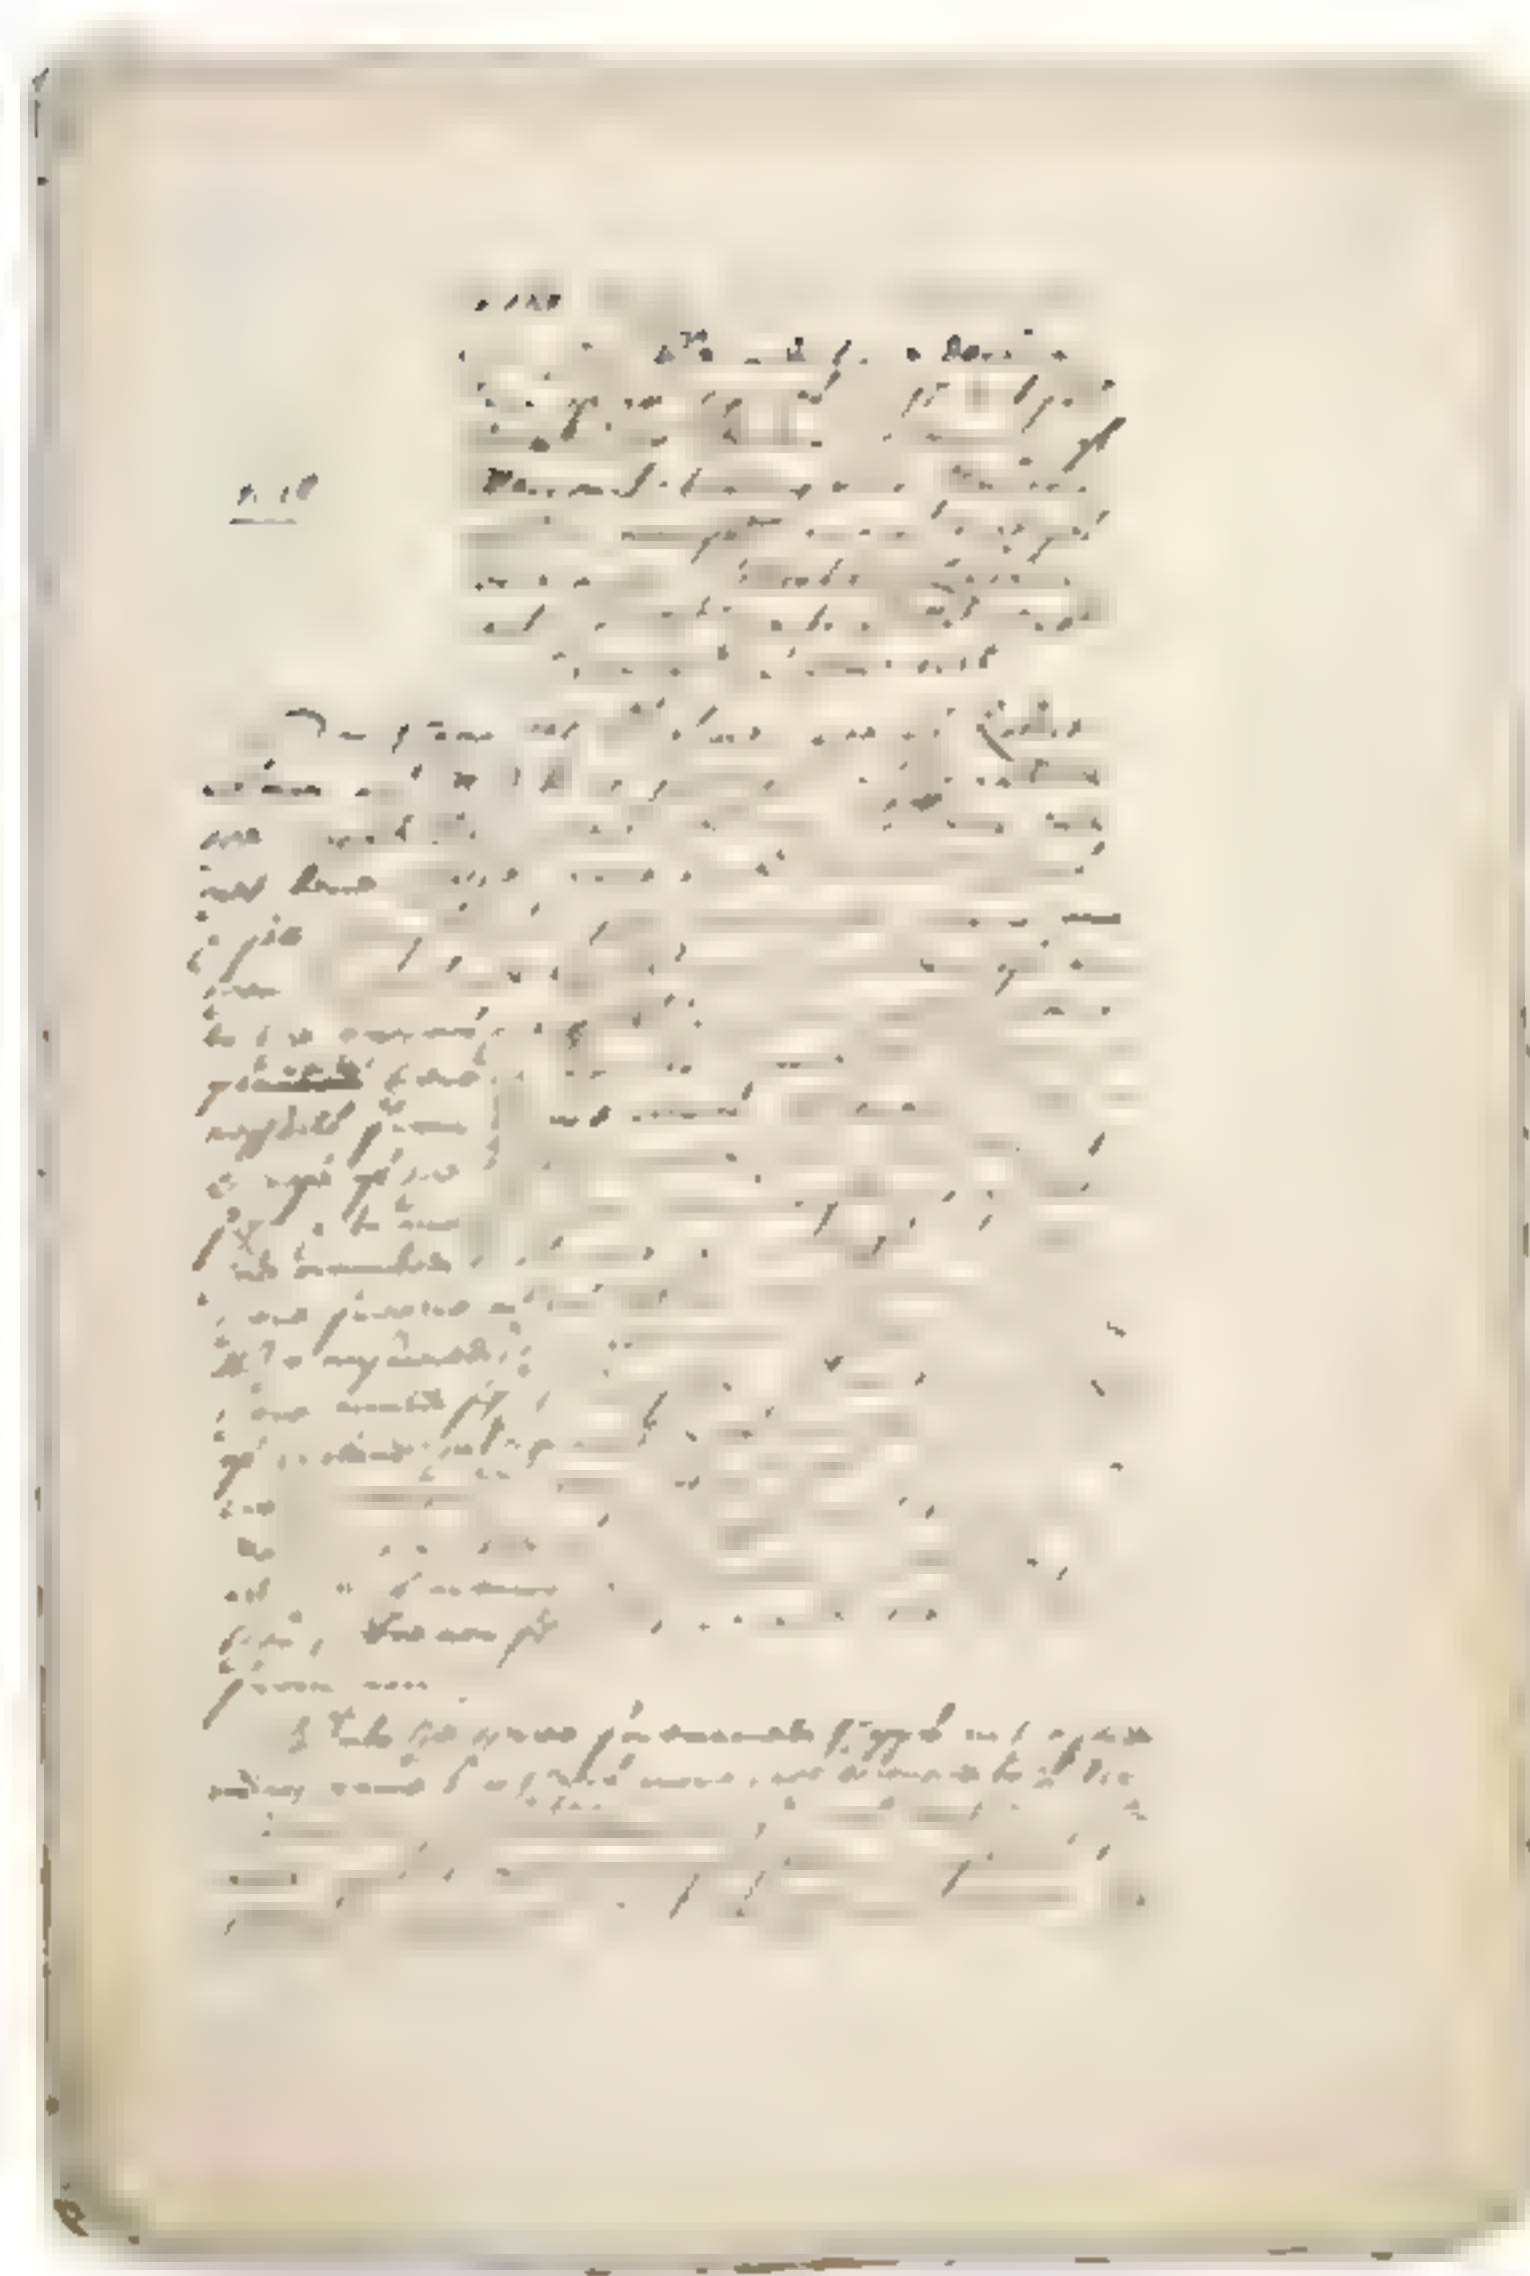

In 1616 a "case arose which pitted common-law rights against episcopal privilege. James supplemented the income of John Overall, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, with the profits of an additional rectory, granted in commendam, only to see a landowner challenge his action. James wrote to the judges that the case concerned his power to govern the church, and asked that they stay proceedings until he decided whether further consultation between judges and churchmen was required. His position was strengthened by a writ which Bacon produced, non procedendo rege inconsulto, allowing the king to intervene in cases close to royal interests, which the attorney-general had tested in other cases. The judges countered unanimously, in a reply drafted probably by Coke, that the king's letter was 'contrary to law' and that 'our oath in express words is that in case any letter comes to use contrary to law that we do nothing by such letters...'. Responding forcefully, James summoned the judges before the privy council, tore up their letter, and demanded of each judge whether he would obey any future royal order. All the judges save Coke backed down." - Oxford DNB.

Another contemporary manuscript copy of this work is located at the Morgan Library in New York, in which the authorship of this tract is no longer considered to be by Bacon. This tract was published in Bacon's, The remaines of... Francis Lord Verulam Viscount of St. Albanes... Being essayes and severall letters to severall great personages, and other pieces... not heretofore published, [Wing B318; Gibson, 218], 1648.

Raleigh [Raleigh] (Sir Walter, courtier, explorer, and author, 1554-1618) AN APOLOGIE WRITTEN BY SR WALT. RALEIGH TOUCHING HIS VOYAGE TO GUYANA, IMEDIATLIE UPON HIS LANDING AT PLYMOUTH ANO DOM. 1618, manuscript (title in a fine cursive and text in Secretary hand), 5pp., some words crossed out, disbound, Pot watermark, folio, [?1618].

✱ "I HAVE SPENT MY POORE ESTATE, LOST MY SONNE, AND MY HEALTH, AND ENDURED AS MANY SORTS OF MISERIES, AS EVER MAN DID..." - Raleigh.

A near contemporary copy of Raleigh's justification of his landing on Spanish territory in the New World, against the explicit instructions of his commission. This manuscript corresponds to the section of the printed work of 1650, with the subheading: A Letter of Sir Walter Rawleigh to my Lord Carew touching Guiana, starting at: "Because I know not whether I shall live to come before the Lords...", and ending: "it yet may please to adde more affliction to the remainder of a wretched life."

An account of Raleigh's second expedition to Guiana in search of El Dorado, the mythical city of gold that he convinced himself lay beyond the town of San Tomé in the interior of the continent. The expedition was bedevilled from the start, the ships being detained by weather off the coast of Ireland for two months. While at sea, Raleigh became unwell with fever and when the fleet arrived off the coast of Guiana he nominated Lawrence Keymis, his second in command to take five ships and sail into the delta of the Orinoco. With Raleigh's nephew, George Raleigh in command of the land forces, they made a pre-planned attack on the Spanish town of San Tomé, knowingly violating the king's commission. In the assault, Raleigh's son, Walter, was killed. Keymis entrusted the expedition into the interior to George Raleigh who travelled 300 miles in launches up the Orinoco river and found nothing but jungle. Keymis on his return was met with accusations of incompetence by Raleigh, and committed suicide. Faced with mutiny and desertion, Raleigh returned to Plymouth and was escorted to London by his cousin Sir Lewis Stucley. "At Salisbury, Raleigh wrote an Apology for the Voyage to Guiana, insisting that Guiana was English territory, and that the actions against Spanish authorities there were entirely justified. James arrived in the city on his summer progress, apparently rejected the Apology, and ordered Raleigh on to London." (Oxford DNB). Old and sick, Raleigh was brought before commissioners of the privy council and after some legal wrangling, was condemned to death, not for his actions in Guiana, but a fulfilment of the sentence of his original treason trial in 1603. Raleigh was executed in Old Palace Yard on the morning of 29 October 1618. His head was placed in a red leather bag and carried away by Lady Raleigh, and his body was buried in St Margaret's Church, Westminster.

✱ Translations into English of some writings by Paracelsus. The best known English translator was John Hester (d. 1592), distiller; he "translated two of Paracelsus's works as The Key of Philosophie (1580) and 114 Experiments (1583?)." (Oxford DNB). Both manuscripts date from the early 17th century but are in two different hands. The first is a digest of metalline medicines and the second, treatments derived from herbs.

More (Sir Thomas [St Thomas More], Lord Chancellor, humanist, and martyr, 1478-1535).- Roper (William, lawyer and biographer, 1495x8-1578) THE LIFE AND DEATH OF SIR THO MORE KNIGHT SOMETIME LO: CHANCELLOR OF ENGLAND... 1535, manuscript in Secretary hand, 58pp. & conjugate blank, drophead title, first f. two tears in margins, soiled, last 4pp. large stain, numerous other small stains, original stitching, disbound, watermark Bunch two pillars with grapes, folio, [cf. BL Harley 6253], [England], [c. 1630].

✱ THOMAS MORE ON THE ACT OF SUPREMACY. "... THIS INDICTMENT IS GROUNDED UPON AN ACT OF PARLIAMENT DIRECTLY REPUGNANT TO THE LAWE OF GOD."

An early 17th century copy of the life of St Thomas More, written by his son-in-law, William Roper for Nicholas Harpsfield's biography, The life and death of Sr Thomas Moore, knight. The biography was written during Queen Mary I's reign and dedicated to William Roper, but it was not published until 1932.

"... Roper's life of More. This is an attractive personal memoir, marked by candour, modesty, and strong loyalty. It is based explicitly on personal recollection, which, however, sometimes needs correction. Roper's portrait of More as a model lord chancellor has been modified in detail by later scholarship, and there is a serious anachronism in his last paragraph (fully discussed by R. W. Chambers in Harpsfield, 353-5). But the book remains an English classic, the earliest personal biography in the language. It has also left its mark on all subsequent writing on More." - Oxford DNB.

Scotland.- [Stewart (John, first Earl of Traquair, politician, c. 1599-1659)]

[DIARY RELATING TO CORRESPONDENCE WITH VARIOUS SCOTTISH LORDS OVER THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE SCOTTISH CHURCH], manuscript, 33pp., also later 19th century manuscript of Baptismal Register at Traquair and signed William Wallace, together 129pp. excluding blanks, slightly browned, engraved bookplate of Charles, Earl of Traquair on front pastedown, contemporary panelled calf, 2 brass clasps with engraved decoration, corners bumped, joints splitting at tail, spine slightly creased, 8vo (151 x 104mm.), dated in text 9th August - 8th November 1639 & 1821.

* "Agust 9 I reseved a pacquet from ye Marq of Hamilton about mattr in ye Club..."; Septem 27 I send a pacquet to ye Earle of Stirling... in was a letter direct to ye Marques... a letter to his maties worde...; Oct 19 The Earle of Rothes told me (in presense of of my lord privie seale & Argyle) yt ye president had ?Missen are letter to them, therby he did submitt him self to yare sensure for that over you should lay to his charge." Correspondence with the Marquess of Hamilton, Earl of Stirling, Earl of Rothes etc.

AN IMPORTANT MOMENT IN SCOTTISH HISTORY. THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND'S ABOLISHMENT OF THE SCOTTISH EPISCOPACY. "In March 1639 Charles issued private instructions for Traquair to fortify and arm Edinburgh Castle, a task which the treasurer soon found logistically impossible to execute, obliging him to garrison Dalkeith Palace until a suitable opportunity arose to transport the weapons into Edinburgh. This chance never came, as Traquair quickly surrendered the palace and its contents to David Leslie, whose team of 1000 musketeers surrounded Dalkeith on 19 March. Traquair immediately went underground, resurfacing in York with Charles himself in April, and later returned to Scotland as lord high commissioner to the general assembly of August. This session resulted in the abolition of episcopacy in Scotland, but the treasurer seems only to have conceded this as a means of buying time, as shown by his strategic postponement of parliament (which would have ratified the assembly legislation) to June 1640." - Oxford DNB.

Westminster Abbey.- Crespion (Rev. Stephen, Gentleman of the Chapel Royal, in 1675 Confessor to the Royal Household, later prebendary of Bristol, from 1673 a Minor Canon of Westminster and Precentor, or Chanter, son of Germain Crespion of St Giles in the Fields, ?1649-1711)

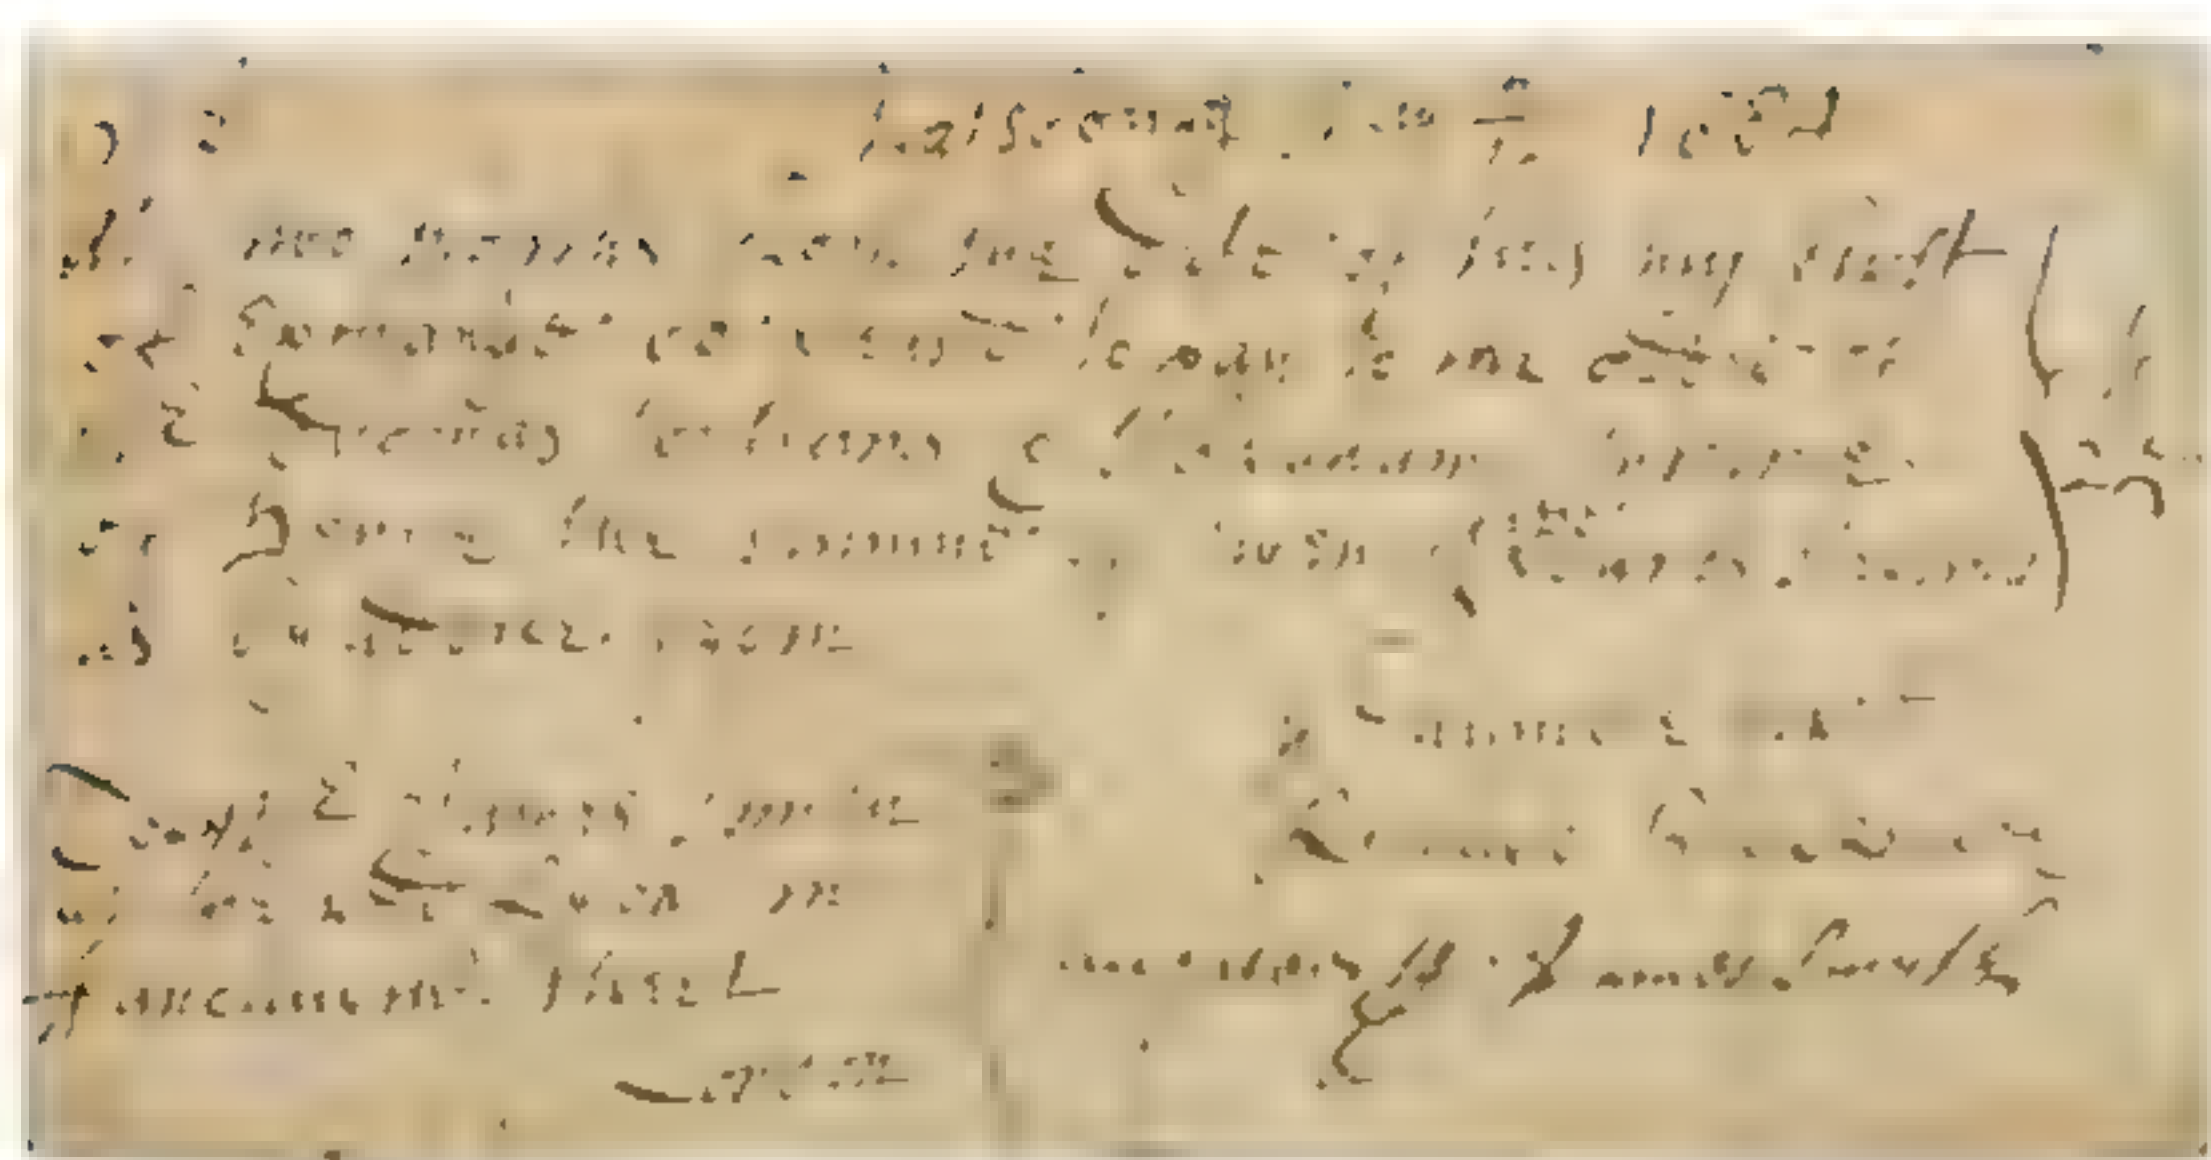

CHILDREN BAPTISED WESTMINST[ER], ?autograph manuscript and later hands, 7pp. (6 on vellum, 3 cut with large loss, 1 blank & 1 on paper), lacks majority of ff., various cuts and soiling, ink autograph inscription: Ex dono Steph: Crespion Hospitii Reg[is]: Confessarii" and another, "To be delivered to my Successor" on front pastedown, original reverse calf, slightly marked, remains of brass clasps, sm. 4to, 1681-1703, 1744-46 & [19th century].

* AN ASSOCIATE OF HENRY PURCELL. Crespion collaborated with Henry Purcell, organist of Westminster Abbey, to sell tickets from a scaffold raised at the choirs expense in the abbey at the coronation of William and Mary. Crespion earned £24 and Purcell, £35.

An interesting remnant of a much larger collection of records of children born in the environs of Westminster, and connected with the court. One instance recorded is the birth in January 1703 of James Scott, the younger son of Lord Dalkeith by his wife Lady Henrietta Hyde, a grandson of James, Duke of Monmouth and a great grandson of Charles II. Westminster Abbey website records that James was baptised at the Earl of Rochester's house in the Cockpit area of Whitehall. He died in 1719 and was buried in the abbey. Later in the 18th century, the register seems to have fallen out of use and adapted as an account book

Kent.- Rochester Charters.- Devon (Charles, examiner of the translation) [TRANSCRIPTIONS OF FIVE ROCHESTER CHARTERS COMPILED FOR SIR THOMAS PHILLIPPS], manuscript, 60pp. excluding blanks, some with docket titles, some manuscript corrections in another hand, first f. loose, some tears along folds, folds, slightly browned, original orange Middle Hill boards, covers working loose, lettered direct, rubbed and soiled, corners and edges worn, lacks spine, large folio, n.d. [dated in text 1824].

✱ Charters including:

(1). Henry III. Royal charter to the citizens of Rochester granting them "all appurtenances and liberties and free Customs to the same City pertaining and that they shall have a merchants guild..." for the sum of £20, 2¼pp., dated 6th February 1266.

(2). Charles I. Letters Patent of inspection of a royal charter of Henry III of the liberties of the citizens of Rochester relating to a variety of issues including Portmote for the sum of £20, 26pp., Canbury [Kingston-upon-Thames], 7th August 1629. Provenance: "Translation of Charter of Charles the 1st made by Jn Bayley at HM Record Office from original charter in the poss[essi]on of The Mayor & Citizens of Rochester 2nd Sept 1824."

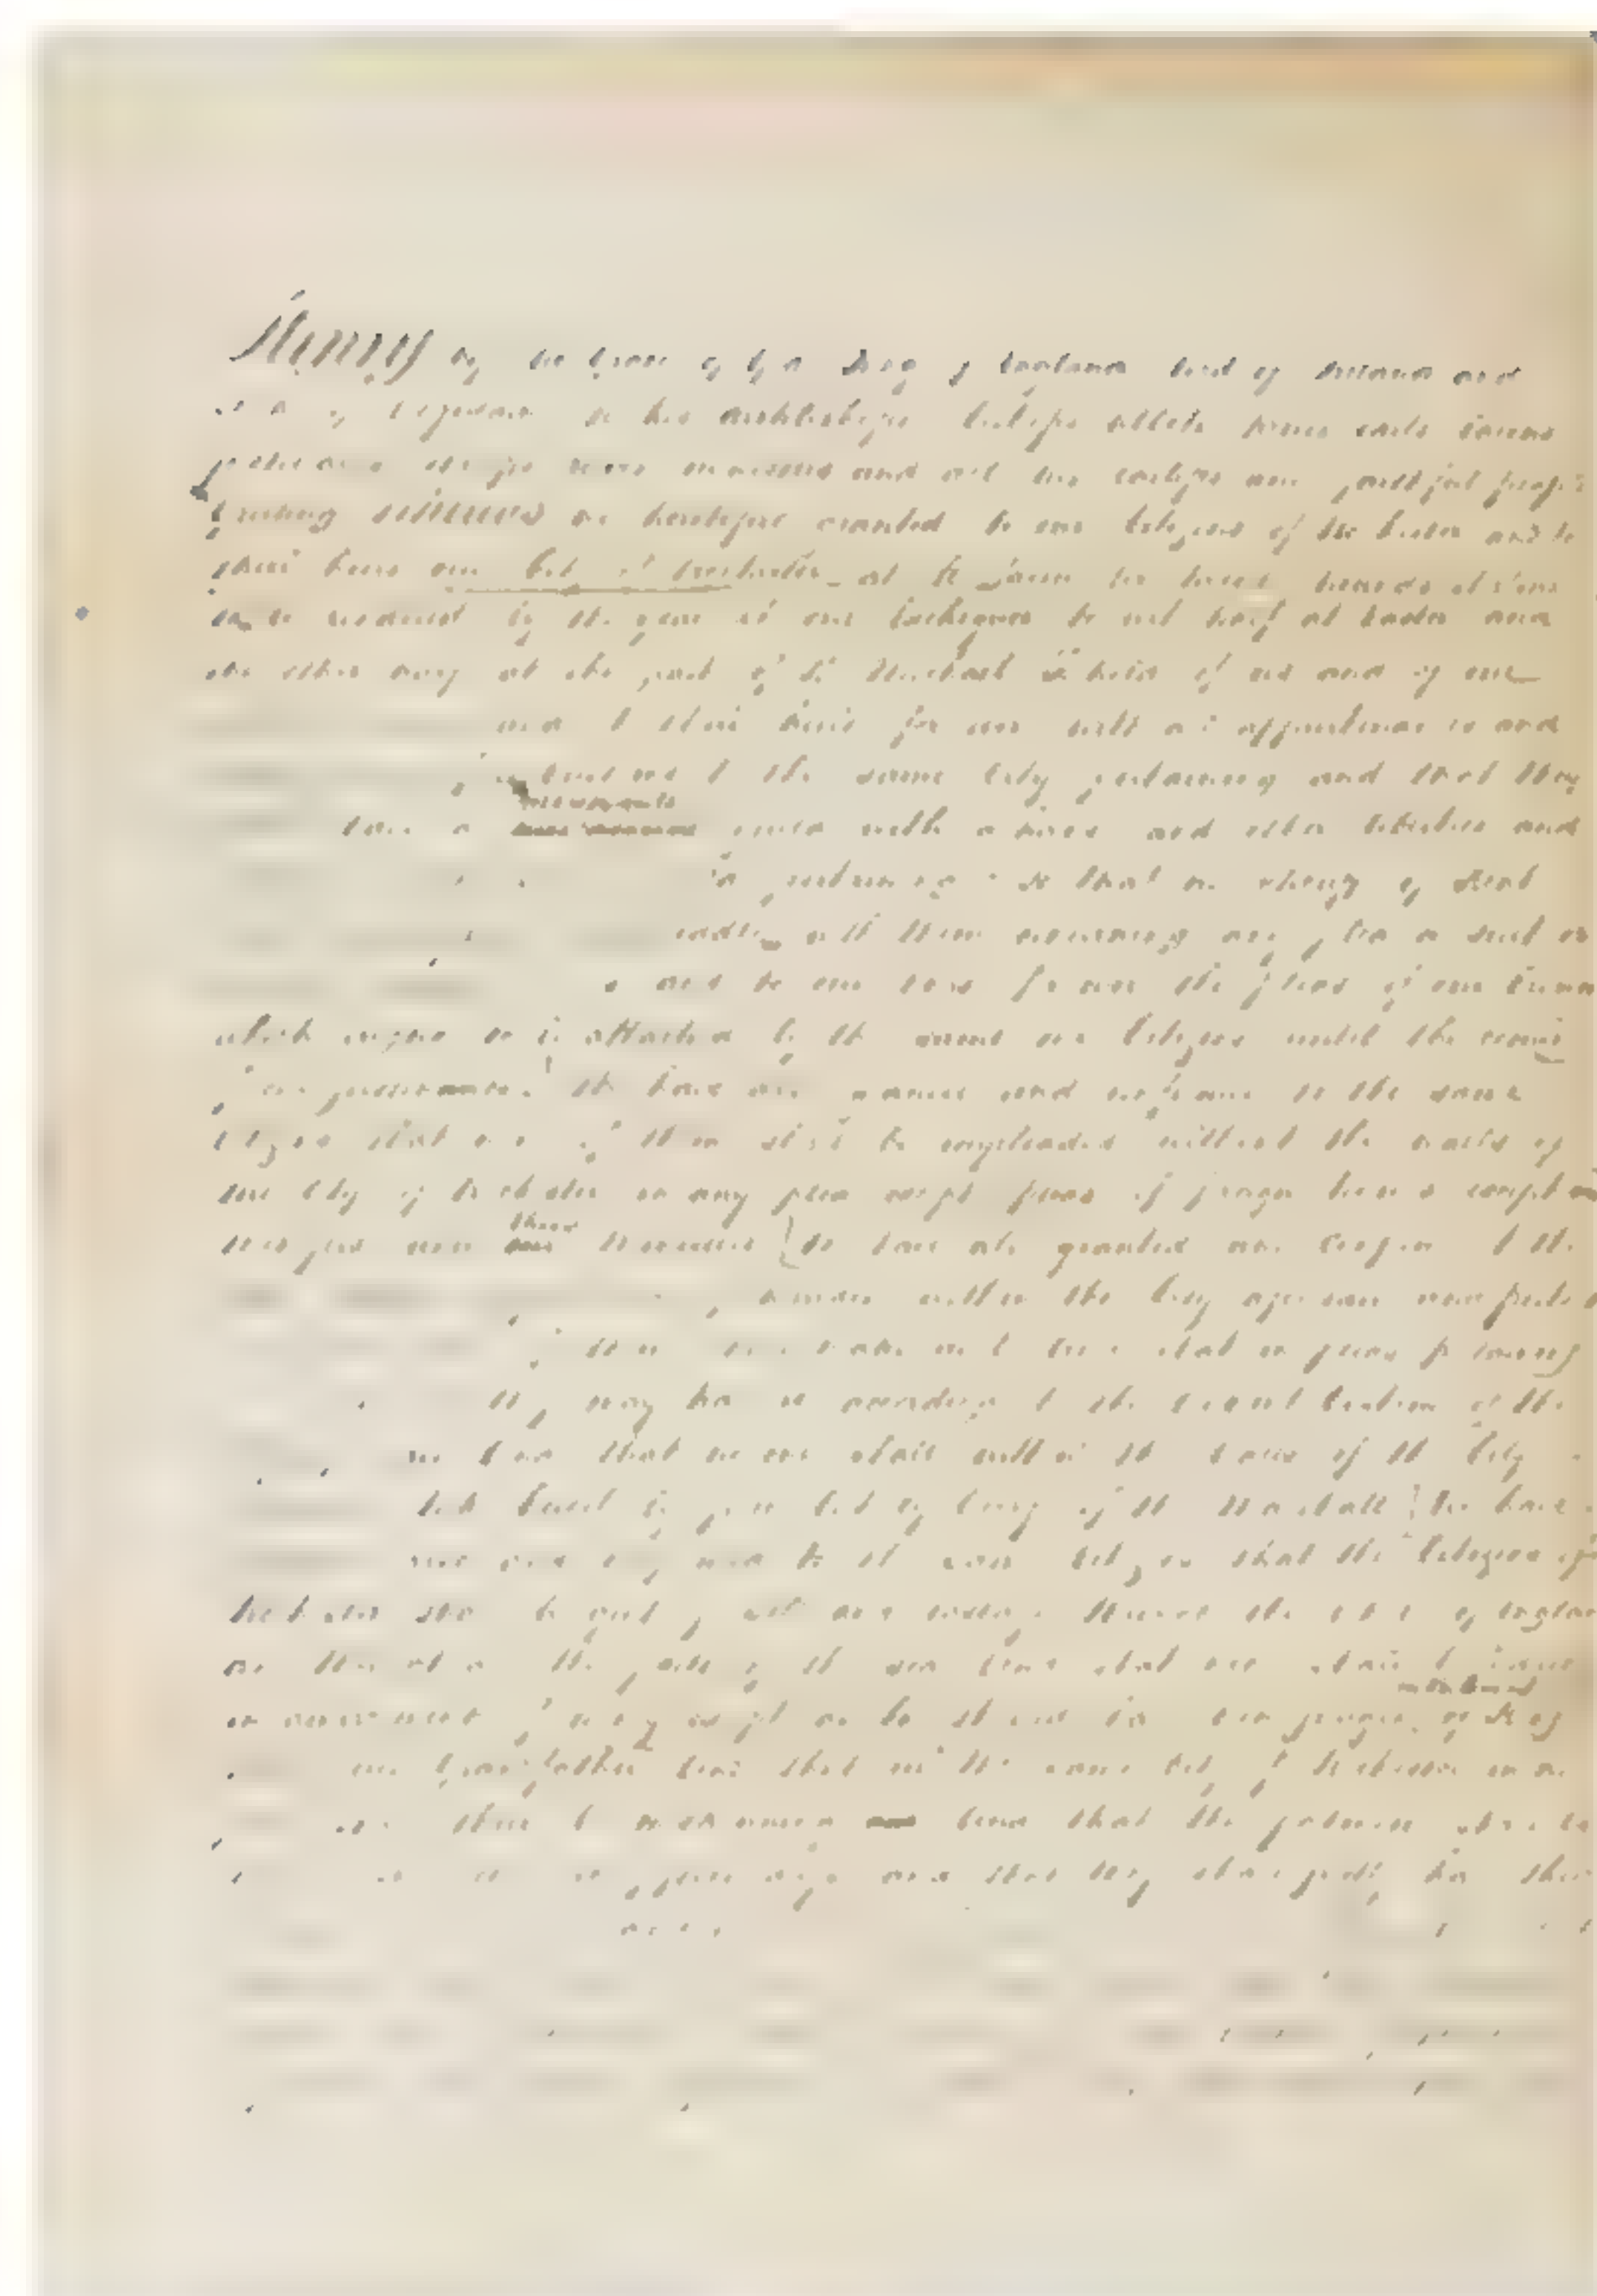

John Bayley (1787-1869), antiquary; chief clerk in the Tower Record Office.

(3). Henry VI. Royal charter confirmation of liberties and "fee customs" to the citizens of Rochester, 11pp., last f. small tear in right without loss, dated 1st June 1446.

A collection of transcriptions of charters by Henry III and confirmations by his successors, quoting charters from his reign. The later charters incorporate significant sections of the text of the original charters. The first mentioned charter was a confirmation of a charter by Henry II, issued in the twelfth year of his reign (1166) and was re-issued by Henry III "for the faithful service which the... Citizens have done us and for the damages and injuries which they sustained in our behalf in the time of the disturbances in our kingdom", and remitting £8. This was issued a few months after the defeat of Simon de Montfort at the Battle of Evesham.

Provenance: Bound in Middle Hill boards from the collection of Sir Thomas Phillipps.

Bible, English. THE MOST SACRED BIBLE, WHICHE IS THE HOLY SCRIPTURE, CONTEYNING THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENT, TRANSLATED...BY RYCHARD TAVERNER, printed in black letter, preliminaries single column, text double column, lacking 2 preliminary ff. and blank leaf 3N4 at end of OT, otherwise complete, titles within woodcut architectural borders, OT trimmed to edge of border, mounted on 19th century paper with some surface abrasion causing slight loss, and loose, woodcut initials, several preliminary leaves badly torn, frayed and creased, first c.60 leaves and a few at end with 19th century guards/repairs to inner margins and sometimes elsewhere with some loss to side-notes, other tears to various leaves throughout, some leaves, especially near beginning trimmed at upper edge affecting headline, some staining, particularly at beginning and end, a few early ink annotations, mostly to verso of final leaf with some partially obscured by later paper repair, signature A (first 6 leaves of Genesis misbound after signature B, NT without signature K as in all known copies, 19th century vellum, gilt, black leather spine labels lettered in gilt, one slightly chipped, a little soiled and stained, front cover starting to bow, [Herbert 45], folio (271 x 190mm.), Prynted...by John Bydell, for Thomas Barthlet, 1539.

✱ AN ALMOST COMPLETE COPY OF THE FIRST EDITION OF TAVERNER'S BIBLE, A REVISION OF MATTHEW'S BIBLE OF 1537. Despite the poor condition of the preliminary leaves, they are probably for the most part reparable and the vast majority of the text is in generally good condition.

"Richard Taverner (1505?-1575), the author of this revision, was born in Brisley in Norfolk about 1505. He was a scholar of both Cambridge and Oxford and received his Master's degree of Cambridge in 1530. He had high repute for his Greek scholarship, and was at this time Clerk of the King's Signets, and in the employ of Thomas Cromwell. He lost his position under Queen Mary but under Queen Elizabeth I was appointed High Sheriff of Oxfordshire. In his corrections of the text, Taverner aims at compression and vividness. He substitutes in many places a Saxon for a Latin word, as spokesman for advocate; and does not hesitate to coin words, as mercystock (1 John i.2). Many marginal notes are omitted, and some new comments added. Taverner's work exercised practically no influence on later revisions (Westcott, History, p. 219), although he introduced parable, passover and a few other terms still in use. There are many peculiarities in the spelling - e.g. peax for peace, hable for able, etc." (Herbert).

Only four copies have appeared at auction since 1988 and all have been substantially less complete than this.

Bible, English. THE BYBLE, THAT IS TO SAY ALL THE HOLY SCRIPTURE: IN WHYCH ARE CONTAYNED THE OLDE AND NEW TESTAMENTE, edited by Edmund Becke, 5 parts in 1, each with a separate woodcut title, the first together with the following 4 leaves printed in red and black, printed in black letter, double column, woodcut illustrations and initials, first and last few leaves with 19th century paper repairs to edges, those repairs on the first 3ff. coming adrift and loose, slight fraying from old damp to fore-edge of first c.40ff. with occasional loss to side-notes, some leaves elsewhere throughout trimmed at fore-edge with loss to side-notes and woodcut border of Apocrypha, lii6 torn into text block but legibility unaffected, some marginal worming, some staining, mostly marginal and not heavy, lacking blank leaf AAa8 at end of part 3, some early ink annotations throughout, 19th century vellum, gilt, slight stain to upper cover, gilt-lettered black morocco spine label slightly chipped, [Herbert 74], folio (295 x 185mm.), Imprynted...by John Daye...and William Seres, 1549.

✠ A TEXTUALLY COMPLETE COPY OF THIS RARE BIBLE, OFTEN KNOWN AS THE 'BUG BIBLE' "though the rendering bugges in Ps. xci. 5 is first found in the Coverdale Bible of 1535, and occurs in many others." (Herbert). It is also known as the "WIFE-BEATER'S BIBLE" because of the reading in 1 Peter iii "And yf she be not obedient and healpful unto hym endevoureth to beate the feare of God into her heade, that therby she maye be compelled to learne her dutie and do it." It is a reprint of Matthew's Bible of 1537, with Becke's notes and revisions. Tyndale's prologue to Jonah is reprinted here for the first time since its appearance in late 1531. The type-face is a "rather peculiar black-letter" (Herbert). As well as the fine woodcut titles, the text illustrations include "two large half-page engravings before Psalms and Isaiah; many cuts in pts. 1 to 4; cuts of each Evangelist; and 20 small figures in Revelation, with rhyming couplets, printed either below or at the sides of each cut." (Herbert).

Whilst copies do appear at auction reasonably regularly, very few are complete, the last one being the Wardington copy in 2006.

Provenance: Thomas Wilson (early ink inscription to title); Granville Hastings Wheler (small green oval morocco book label dated 1725).

The Tragedy of Richard the Third: vvith the Landing of Earle Richmond, and the Battell at Bosworth Field.

Actus Primus. Scena Prima.

Enter Richard Duke of Glouster, alone.

Now is the Winter of our Discontent,
Made glorious Summer by this Son of Yorke:
And in the clouds that low, d upon our harts
In the deeps bottom of the Ocean burst.
Now are our brows bound with Victorious Wreathes,
Our beaten drums hung up for Monuments;
Our former Alarms chang'd to merry Meetings,
Our former Marches, to delightful Measures.
Grim-visag'd Warre, hath smooth'd his wrinkled Front,
And now, in fluted mounting Barbed breeds,
To fright the Soules of fearful Adversaries,
He capers merrily in a Ladies Chamber.
To the lascivious pealing of a Lute.
But I, that am not thap'd for sportive tricks,
Nor made to court an amorous Looking-glass;
I, that am rudely stamp'd, and want loves Majelty,
To strut before a wanton smiling Symply,
I, that am curst with a five-hundred-poune,
Cheated of feature by dissembling Nature,
Deform'd with selfe's unbawling Silence, whose inner Intelligence doth teach his hideous frowne,
And thus my frowne, and my frowne's frowne,
That doggedly bane at me, as I haue them:
Why I (in this pale pining time of Ierke)
Hire no delight to pale away the time,
Vile to the eye, shadow in the Name,
And detest in mine owne Deformity:
And therefore, since I cannot proue a Lover,
To entertaine this time with a spousen dayes,
I am determin'd to proue a Vindicator,
And here the idle pleasures of these dayes,
I will haue I made, I will haue dangerous,
By drunken Prophecies, Lutes, and Decrees,
To let my brother Clarence and the King
In deadly hate the one against the other;
And it King I should be as true and just,
As I am vaine, faine, and Trecherous,
This day I would Clarence chide be new-dup
About a Prophecy, which loves this G.
Of Lancaster he sayes the murtherer shall be:
Dive therefore downe to my toulle, here Clarence comes.

Enter Clarence, and Beakenbury, guarded.
Brother, good day: What means this armed guard

That waite vpon your Grace?
Cl. His Majesty tendering my person's safety,
Hath appointed this Guard to convey me to the Tower.
Rich. Vpon what cause?
Cl. Because my name is George.
Rich. Alacke my Lord, that name is none of yours:
He should haue that comit your Grandfather:
O becke, his Majesty hath some more
That you should see new Christened in the Tower.
But what's the matter Clarence, may I know?
Cl. Yea Richard, when I know: but I protest
As yet I do not: but as I can learne,
He hearkens after Prophecies and Dreames,
And from the Gallowes pluckes the letter G.
And sayes, a Wizard told him, that by G,
His should be berthed should be.
And for my name of George begins with G,
If I followes in his thought, that I am he.
There (as I learne) and for this reason there,
Hath moov'd his Highnesse to comit me now.
Rich. Why thus it is, women are ruled by Women:
'Tis not the King that sends you to the Tower,
My Lady Grey his Wife, Clarence 'tis she,
That detains him to this harsh Exile:
Wait not long, and that good man of Woodstocke,
Whom Woodstocke her brother there,
That made him Lord and Hereford the Tower:
From whence this present day he is delivered.
We are not late Clarence, we are not late.
Cl. By heaves, I thinke there is some secret
Betwix the Queene's kindnes, and my King's Herald,
That brings me to this place, and makes me here.
Heard you not what a horrible shattering
Lord Hastings was for his dayes?
Rich. Truly complaining to her Deitie,
Got my Lord Chamber and his Liberty.
He tells you what, I thinke it is our way,
If we will keepe in favour with the King,
To let her men, and weare her Livery:
The jealous more worse Whidow, and her felze,
Since that our Brother du'd them Gentlewomen,
Are mighty Godips in our Monarchie.
Cl. I beseech your Graces both to pardon me,
His Majesty hath straightly given in charge,
That no man shall have private Conference
(Of what degree soever) with your Brother.

Rich.

Much adoe about Nothing.

Actus Primus, Scena Prima.

Enter Leonatus Governor of Messina, Iseppo his wife, Hero his daughter, and Beatrice his Nurse, with a Messenger.

Leon.
Learne in this Letter, that Don Pedro of Arragon comes this night to Messina.
Mess. He is very welcome by this, he was not three Leagues off when I did write.
Leon. How many Gentlemen have you left in this city?
Mess. But few of any sort, and none of name.
Leon. A victory is twice a victory, when the achiever leaves home full numbers: I thinke here, that Don Pedro hath bestowed much honour on a young Floranzo, called Claudio.
Mess. Much desired on his part, and equally remembered by Don Pedro, he hath borne himself beyond the promise of his age, doing in the figure of a Lambe, the reares of a Lyon, he hath indeed betterer'd expectation on than you would expect of me to tell you how.
Leon. He hath an Uncle here in Messina, will be very much glad of it.
Mess. I have already delivered him Letters, and there appears much joy in him, even so much that joy could not shew it selfe modest enough, without a badge of bit-ternesse.
Leon. Did he breake out into teares?
Mess. In great measure.
Leon. A kinde overflow of kindeenesse: there are no faces truer, then these that are to weep'd, how much better is it to weep at joy, than to joy at weeping?
Beat. I pray you, is Signior Afonso returned from the warres yet no?
Mess. I know none of that name, Lady, there was none such in the Army of any sort.
Leon. What is he that you aske for Niece?
Beat. My Cousin, heares Signior Benedicke of Padua.
Mess. O he is returned, and as patient as ever he was.
Beat. He is up in his heels in Messina, and chiding d Cousin the Uncle, and my Niece to see the reason of the Challenge, and the Uncle, and Challenged him at the Barre: I pray you, how many hath hee killed and carried there with him? how many hath hee killed?
indeed, I pray you to catch a Flourish.
Leon. I pray Niece, you take Signior Benedicke too much, hee hath beene with you, I doubt it not.
Mess. He hath done much service Lady in this warre.
Beat. You bid him to be a man, and hee hath beene to eat it, hee is a very valiant Frenchman, hee hath an excellent horse.

Mess. And a good souldier too Lady.
Beat. And a good souldier to a Lady. But what is he to a Lord?
Mess. A Lord to a Lord, a Man to a Man, stuit with all honourable vertues.
Beat. It is so indeed he is no kisse then a stuit man: but for the flouting well, we are all mortall.
Leon. You shall not (if) shake my Niece, there is a kindest merry War between Signior Benedicke and her, they never meet, but there is a tumult of war betweene them.
Beat. Alas, hee gets nothing by that. In our last conflict, four of his new waite were slaine off, and now is the whole man govern'd with one: so that if hee have not enough to keepe himselfe warme, we thanke him for a disturbance betweene him and his horse: for it is all the wealth that he hath left, so he knowes a reasonable creature. Who is his Companion now? Hee hath every month a new frowne clothed.
Mess. 'Tis possible?
Beat. Very easily possible he weares his faith bar as the fashion of his hat, it ever changes with the blocke.
Mess. I see (Lady) the Gentleman is not in your bookes.
Beat. No, and he were, I would burne my study. But I pray you who is his companion? Is there no young souldier now, that will make a voyage with him to the Ivory?
Mess. He is most in the company of the right noble
Claudio.
Beat. O Lord, hee will hang upon him like a disease, he is the owner caught the Frenchman, and the taker runnes perfectly madde. God helpe the noble Claudio, if he have caught the Benedicke, it will cost him a thousand pound ere it be cured.
Mess. I will hold friends with you Lady.
Beat. These good friends.
Leon. You the returned Niece.
Beat. No, not till a hot January.
Mess. Don Pedro is approach'd.

Enter Don Pedro Claudio, Benedicke, Balthazar, and John the ballad.
Pedro. Good Signior Leonatus, you are come to meete your trouble: the fashion of the world is to avoid cold, and you encounter it.
Leon. Never came trouble to my house in the like effe of your Grace: but, able being gone, and without remedie: but when you depart from me, I grow warme, and happynesse takes his leave.

Pedro.

Containing a Variety of Surprising Incidents,
Diverting Intrigues, and Elegant Conversations on the TENDER PASSION.

You then who think that Love's an idle Fit,
Know, that it is the Excellence of Wit:
Two Soldiers long and tedious Marches make,
The active Lover, for his Mistress' sake,
Will any Toils or Dangers undergo;
Not rugged Mountains, nor untrodden Snow,
Rivers by Floods increas'd, no raging Sea,
Nor adverse Winds, can ever make him fly,
When Love commands, and Beauty leads the Way }

ON
PRESENT WAR.

IN the disclosal of Opinion, it is our duty to consider the character of those, to whom we address ourselves, their situations, and probable degree of knowledge. We should be bold in the avowal of political Truth among those only whose minds are susceptible of reasoning: and never to the multitude, who ignorant and needy must necessarily act from the impulse of inflamed Passions. But however carefully the Advocate of Freedom may preserve this distinction, the Child of Prejudice and the Slave of Corruption will industriously represent it as confounded: whatever may be the sentiments and language of the present Address, the attempt to promote Discussion will be regarded as dangerous, and from

THAT ALL MAY KNOW THE TRUTH;
AND THAT THE TRUTH MAY MAKE US FREE!

AMONG the calamities which eventually have produced the most important blessings, we may particularize the capture of Constantinople by the Turks in 1453. The number of learned Greeks, whom this event drove into the West, in conjunction with the recent discovery of printing, kindled the love of knowledge in Europe, and supplied opportunities for the attainment of it. Princes emulated each other in the patronage of men of ability, and endeavoured to excite a spirit of literature among their subjects, by every encouragement which their rude policy suggested, or the genius of the age would permit. The first scanty twilight of knowledge was sufficient to shew what horrors had resulted from ignorance; and no experience had yet taught them that general illumination is incompatible with undelegated power. This incipient diffusion of truth was aided by the Lutheran schism, which roused the Clergy of Europe from their long doze of sensuality, and by the keen goading of religious controversy forced each party into literary exertion. And after the Reformation it was fortunate for the interests of Britain, that the Puritans, her first partizans for civil and religious freedom, were greatly inferior to their antagonists in acquired knowledge. Coleridge (Samuel Taylor) CONCIONES AD POPULAM, OR ADDRESSES TO THE PEOPLE, FIRST AND ONLY EDITION, bookplate of Robert, Marquess of Crewe on front pastedown, mid 19th century half calf, gilt, [Wise 3], sm. 8vo, [Bristol, for the Author], 1795.

✱ A rare early work by Coleridge, printing two lectures in the Corn Market, Bristol. The first, on contemporary English Jacobins such as Paine, Godwin and Gerrald, had been printed as A Moral and Political Lecture, but the second, On the Present War, against Pitt, his policies and the war against France, is first printed here.

Provenance: Robert Milnes, Marquess of Crewe (1858-1945). Perhaps inherited from his father, Richard Monckton Milnes (Lord Houghton), who left an enormous library, considerably extended by his son.

Coleridge (Samuel Taylor) THE WATCHMAN..., 10 nos., (all published), first no. second issue, ink printing mark on p. 85, small hole repaired on p. 143 affecting a few words, slightly browned, a little light dust-soiling, later endpapers, later straight-grained morocco, gilt, t.e.g., [Ashley I p. 196; Tinker 677; Crane & Kaye 916], 8vo, Bristol, by the Author, [1796].

✱ Coleridge's political journal, issued every eight days to avoid the duty levied on weekly papers. "I declare my intention of relating facts simply and nakedly, without epithets or comments; and if at any time the opposition and ministerial prints differ from each other in detail of events, faithfully to state such difference. It would be absurd to promise an equal neutrality in the political Essays. My bias, however, is in favor of principles, not men." - Coleridge. From the first no. of The Watchman.

Coleridge (Sara, writer and literary editor, 1802-52).- Southey (Robert) [The Works], SARA COLERIDGE'S COLLECTION OF SOUTHEY'S WORKS, 8 VOLUMES INSCRIBED, AND MOST GIVEN TO HER BY HIM, together 16 vol., uniformly bound in contemporary half red morocco, gilt spines faded, 8vo, London, 1815-29.

✿ A UNIQUE ASSOCIATION COLLECTION FROM THE LIBRARY OF THE POET AND PHILOSOPHER SARA COLERIDGE (1802-52), only daughter of Samuel Taylor Coleridge and Sara Fricker. Many of the books were presented to her by her uncle, Robert Southey, and inscribed as such either by Sara, Southey or her husband Henry Nelson Coleridge, whom she married in 1829. "The ongoing literary labours of Wordsworth and Southey thus ensured an almost constant stream of visitors at Greta Hall, and by the age of twenty Sara had met many of the most famous writers of her day. This stimulating environment, the excellent tutelage of her mother and uncle, her own intellectual prowess, and the impecunious state of the Coleridge family all contributed to Sara's first literary efforts." - Oxford DNB.

Collection comprises: (1). The Minor Poems of Robert Southey, 3 vol., inscribed on first title: "Sara Coleridge/Greta-hall/Keswick". The inscription in Sara Coleridge's hand, vol. II small stain at beginning, lacks half-titles, 1815 (2). The Poet's Pilgrimage to Waterloo..., Second edition, 8 plates (some discoloured), inscribed on title: "Sara Coleridge/from/Robert Southey. 1830"; in the hand of Henry Nelson Coleridge, 1816 (3). The Curse of Kehama..., 2 vol., The fourth edition, inscribed on half title to volume I: "Sara Coleridge/from/Robert Southey. 1830", in Henry Nelson Coleridge's hand, 1818 (4). Thalaba the Destroyer..., The fourth edition, inscribed on both titles: "Sara Coleridge/from Robert Southey/1829", inscription in the hand of Henry Nelson Coleridge, inscribed on endpaper of both volumes: "Ellen Coleridge/May 1886", presumably Ellen (née Phillips), widow of Herbert Coleridge, philologist, Sara's only son, who had died of consumption in 1861 (5). Carmen Triumphale..., Second edition, 1821 (6). The Expedition of Orsua..., 1821 (7). Madoc..., Fifth edition, inscribed on first half title: "Sara Coleridge/from/Robert Southey/1830", in the hand of Henry Nelson Coleridge (8). A Tale of Paraguay..., First edition, inscribed by Southey at head of title: "Sara Coleridge, - from the Author" (9). Roderick, The Last of the Goths..., Sixth edition, 1826 (10). All For Love; and the Pilgrim to Compostella..., inscribed at head of title: "Sara Coleridge/from/the Author. 1831, in the hand of Henry Nelson Coleridge, 1829.

THE CENCI

Whose sight infects and poisons me; this devil
Which sprung from me as from a hell, was meant
To aught good use; if her bright loveliness
Was kindled to illumine this dark world;
If nursed by thy selectest dew of love
Such virtues blossom in her as should make
The peace of life, I pray thee for my sake,
As thou the common God and Father art,
Of her, and me, and all; reverse that doom!
Earth, in the name of God, let her food be Poison, untill she be encrusted round
With leprous stains! Heaven, rain upon her head
The blistering drops of the Maremma's dew,
Till she be speckled like a toad; parch up
Those love-enkindled lips, warp those fine limbs
To loathed lameness! All beholding sun,
Strike in thine envy those life darting eyes
With thine own blinding beams! till she become an abhorrence, and...
Lucr. Peace! Peace!

For thine own sake unsay those dreadful words!
When high God grants, he punishes, such prayers.

Cen. (Leaping up, and throwing his right hand towards Heaven)

He does his will, I mine! This in addition,
That if she have a child...

Lucr. Horrible thought!

Cen. That if she ever have a child; and thou,
Quick Nature! I adjure thee by thy God,
That thou be fruitful in her, and encrease
And multiply, fulfilling his command,

Shelley (Percy Bysshe) THE CENCI. A TRAGEDY, IN FIVE ACTS, FIRST EDITION, ONE OF 250 COPIES, 4 AUTOGRAPH CORRECTIONS BY SHELLEY ON FOUR PAGES, slightly browned, ALs from Neville Rogers loosely inserted, new endpapers, bound in modern crushed morocco, gilt spine, [Ashley V 69], 8vo, Italy [Leghorn], Printed for C. and J. Ollier Vere Street Bond Street, London, 1819.

✱ SHELLEY'S AUTOGRAPH CORRECTIONS. First edition of the only work by Shelley in Leghorn (Livorno), in an edition of only 250 copies, in the summer of 1819; it does not seem to have been published until the following year.

Corrections comprise: (1). Page 62, Shelley has added a line to the list of curses that Cenci wishes upon his daughter in Act IV scene 1: speech ending "All beholding sun, Strike in thine envy those life-darting eyes With thine own blinding beams!" has been extended with "till she become an abhorrence, and..." (2). Page 69, "Runs freely" has been changed to "Runs freelier" (3). Page 71, "He is a wicked and wrathful man" becomes "He is a wicked and a wrathful man" (4). Page 97, typographical correction, "Sweet sleep, were death like to thee" changed to "Sweet sleep, were death like thee."

Neville Rogers (1908-85), Shelley scholar; author of Shelley at Work: A Critical Enquiry, Oxford, Clarendon Press, 1956: Oxford English Texts, The Complete Poetical Works of Shelley. ALs from Rogers to James Stevens-Cox, "It is most kind of you to send me Shelley's corrections which he made to your precious copy of The Cenci".

SONNET.

OZYMANDIAS.

I met a traveller from an antique land
Who said : Two vast and trunkless legs of stone
Stand in the desert. Near them, on the sand,
Half sunk, a shattered visage lies, whose frown,
And wrinkled lip, and sneer of cold command,
Tell that its sculptor well those passions read
Which yet survive, stamped on these lifeless things,
The hand that mocked them and the heart that fed :
And on the pedestal these words appear :
" My name is Ozymandias, king of kings :
Look on my works, ye Mighty, and despair !"
Nothing beside remains. Round the decay
Of that colossal wreck, boundless and bare
The lone and level sands stretch far away.

Gothic novel.- TALES OF TERROR, FIRST EDITION, additional engraved vignette title, hand-coloured engraved frontispiece and 2 hand-coloured plates, advertisement f. at end, bookplate and book-label to pastedown, later half morocco, extremities lightly rubbed, worse to joints, spine gilt in compartments, lightly faded and rubbed but still overall an attractive copy, t.e.g., others uncut, [Summers, Gothic p.525], 8vo, printed by W. Bulmer & Co. for J.Bell, 1801.

✱ A wonderfully macabre work, initially attributed to Matthew Lewis but now assumed to be a parody of his work. "The book is gruesome and in its illustrations even disgusting and it seems impossible that Lewis could have had anything to do with it. Some of the ballads are too coarse and grotesque to stand comparison with any work by M. G. Lewis." - Montague Summers, A Gothic Bibliography.

Provenance: Bookplate of of Sir Charles Tennant (1823-1906), first Baronet, businessman and Liberal politician; also book-label of John Delaware Lewis MP (1828-84), Liberal politician.

WITH A BIOGRAPHICAL NOTICE OF HE AUTHOR, 4 vol., FIRST EDITIONS, lacking vol. 3 half-title, others present but misbound before general titles, lacking final two blanks in vol. 4, spotting and occasional browning, book label of R. Newman Price to front pastedowns, early 20th century half calf, spines gilt in compartments with brown and green morocco labels, extremities rubbed, vol. 2 spine chipped at head, t.e.g., [Gilson A9], 12mo, John Murray, 1818.

✱ First edition of both novels, published posthumously. Northanger Abbey, a Gothic novel parody, had been drafted fifteen years earlier under a working title of 'Susan', but was abandoned when another novel of the same name appeared in 1809. Persuasion was completed by Austen in the summer of 1816, shortly before she was forced to stop writing due to ill-health.

Nightingale (Florence).- Henslow (Fanny H.) LITERARY GLEANINGS. BY AN INVALID. SECOND SERIES, FIRST EDITION, PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION FROM FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE TO HER SISTER PARTHENOPE "MISS P. NIGHTINGALE WITH THE BEST RESPECTS OF THE GLEANER" to endpaper, occasional light dampstaining to head, ink ownership inscription of Ruth Verney to endpaper, original cloth, spine sunned, splitting to lower joint but holding firm spine ends a little chipped, 12mo, 1857.

✱ A CHARMING ASSOCIATION COPY OF THIS WORK DEDICATED TO FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE AND GIFTED BY HER TO HER OLDER SISTER, AND ONE OF HER CLOSEST SUPPORTERS AND FRIENDS, PARTHENOPE.

Parthenope would marry Harry Verney in 1858 so this inscription is likely dated on or around the year of the book's publication, a year in which Florence had been invalided. Florence's reference to herself as "the gleaner" is curious and combined with the printed dedication could indicate that she assisted in some of the selections presented in the work.

Nightingale (Florence).- Wood (Rev. J. G.) ROUTLEDGE'S PICTURE NATURAL HISTORY, FIRST EDITION, SIGNED PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION FROM FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE "FOR MY DEAR LITTLE GOD-CHILD RUTH [VERNEY] FROM GOD-MAMA AUNT FLORENCE. JULY 1882" to endpaper, illustrations, some light finger-soiling, several gatherings loose, original pictorial cloth, lacking backstrip, spine broken, rubbed, 4to, [c.1880].

✱ AN EXCELLENT ASSOCIATION COPY INSCRIBED BY NIGHTINGALE TO HER GODDAUGHTER. Ruth Verney was the daughter of Parthenope Nightingale and Harry Verney (who had proposed to the older of the Nightingales after his proposal was rejected by Florence). Florence would play a significant role in Ruth's upbringing and her goddaughter would return the favour in continuing her godmother's legacy after her death in 1910.

Nightingale (Florence).- Pratt (Anne) OUR NATIVE SONGSTERS, SIGNED PRESENTATION INSCRIPTION "FOR MY DEAR LITTLE GOD-DAUGHTER RUTH WITH AUNT FLORENCE'S VERY BEST LOVE. CLAYDON. OCTOBER 1890" to endpaper, colour plates, bookplate of Ruth Verney to front pastedown, original pictorial cloth, spine a little rubbed and dulled, light bumping to spine ends and corners, some worming to upper cover, 8vo, [c.1890].

✱ AN EXCELLENT ASSOCIATION COPY INSCRIBED FROM NIGHTINGALE TO THE DAUGHTER OF HER OLDER SISTER PARTHENOPE. Frances Parthenope Nightingale (1819-1890) had died 5 months prior to this inscription having suffered for several years from both arthritis and cancer. For the last five years of her life she had required full-time care, overseen by her sister Florence.

Nightingale (Florence).- Scott (Sir Walter) WAVERLY OR 'TIS SIXTY YEARS SINCE, vol. 1 only, "FOR MY DEAR GOD-DAUGHTER RUTH FLORENCE VERNEY ON HER BIRTHDAY DEC. 8/94 FROM HER LOVING GOD-MOTHER FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE... FOR 'WHAT A SPLENDID GIFT IS THE GIFT OF LIFE'" to endpaper, title-page detached, plates, portrait of Scott laid onto frontispiece recto, some light finger-soiling, upper hinge cracked, bookplate of Ruth Verney to front pastedown, original cloth, light sunning to spine, extremities a little rubbed, 8vo, 1892.

✱ AN EXCELLENT ASSOCIATION COPY WITH A TOUCHING AND LENGTHY INSCRIPTION FROM THE AGING FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE. By 1892, Nightingale was aged 74, increasingly infirm and understandably meditating on her own mortality (a circumstance exacerbated by the death of her favourite sister, Ruth's mother, 2 years earlier).

Nightingale (Florence).- Schumann (Bertha) WAS GROSSMUTTER ERZALT, signed presentation inscription "FOR MY DEAR RUTH WITH THE BEST LOVE OF AUNT FLORENCE (WHO REMEMBERS HER FIRST TRAINING GIVEN IN A GERMAN DEACONESS HOUSE) MARCH/ 97" to endpaper, colour plates, bookplate of Ruth Verney to front pastedown, original cloth-backed pictorial boards, spine sunned, rubbing and soiling, splitting to lower joint, sm. 4to, Stuttgart, 1895.

✱ AN EXCELLENT ASSOCIATION COPY WITH AN INTRIGUING INSCRIPTION FROM THE AGING FLORENCE REFLECTING UPON THE BEGINNING OF HER NURSING CAREER 47 YEARS EARLIER IN 1850. The inscription refers to Nightingale's time at Kaiserswerth-am-Rhein in Germany with a Lutheran religious community. Nightingale observed the ministrations of the pastor and deaconesses and the experience would prove formative.

111

Nightingale (Florence).- Ewing (Juliana Horatia) JACKANAPES, signed presentation inscription from "HARRY VERNEY WITH AUNT FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE'S DEAR LOVE 1890" to endpaper, illustrations by Randolph Caldecott, browning to endpapers, some cracking to gutter but contents firm, original cloth-backed pictorial boards, rubbed and a little browned, [c.1890]; and 2 others, including a typescript of Harry Verney's speech "Some Personal Reminiscences About Florence Nightingale", 8vo (3)

✱ A GOOD ASSOCIATION COPY INSCRIBED TO NIGHTINGALE'S GREAT NEPHEW TOGETHER WITH TWO BOOKS THAT DEMONSTRATE HIM CONTINUING HER LEGACY IN LATER LIFE.

£600 - 800

Rossetti family copy.- Aristotle. TRATTATO DEI GOVERNI, translated by Bernardo Segni, collation: A-Z Aa-Zz Aaa-lll⁴, FIRST EDITION OF THIS TRANSLATION, woodcut historiated initials, title with a few small repaired holes (affecting part of one number of date) and stained, some staining and spotting, the former heavier to sigs. A-C, late 18th / early 19th century calf, rebacked preserving original backstrip (worn at ends), modern black leather label to spine, edges worn, rubbed and little chipped, small 4to (212 x 132mm.), Florence, Lorenzo Torrentino, 1559.

✱ Provenance: 'W.M. Rossetti, from his mother, 1876' (ink inscription to front free endpaper). William Michael Rossetti was the younger brother of Dante Gabriel Rossetti, and a year older than his sister Christina. His mother was Frances Mary Polidori, sister of John William Polidori (author of The Vampyre and physician to Lord Byron). William was a founder member of the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood, and edited their literary magazine The Germ. He also edited the diaries of his uncle John William Polidori and the collected works of D.G. Rossetti and Christina Rossetti, as well writing a biography of D.G. Rossetti.

Literature: EDIT 16 CNCE 2928.

Founder of British sports science.- Abrahams (Harold M. and Dr. Adolphe) TRAINING FOR ATHLETES, FIRST EDITION, plates, light spotting to fore-edge, light browning to endpapers, original cloth, light sunning to spine, dust-jacket, light browning to spine, minor chipping to spine ends and corners, but a bright, near-fine example overall, 8vo, 1928.

✱ A superb example of this scarce book, we can trace no other copy in the dust-jacket. Abrahams (whose exploits are famously recounted in the film The Chariots of Fire) won the 100m at the 1924 Olympics. Adolphe was medical officer for the British Olympic team from 1912 to 1948 and is now regarded as the founder of British sports science.

£400 - 600

Early report on the Holocaust.- Mass Extermination of Jews in German Occupied Poland (The), original printed stapled wrappers, some slight rust-staining, but a very good copy generally, 8vo, Hutchinson, for the Polish Ministry of Foreign Affairs, [1943].

✱ The earliest official announcement describing the Final Solution, the systematic mass-murder of Jews by the Nazis, which led to the Holocaust. The present pamphlet was mainly based on Jan Karski's work in Poland as a secret agent on behalf of the Polish Government in exile and his subsequent report on the horrors of the Warsaw Ghetto and the Treblinka, Belzec and Sobibor death camps. The report goes into detail on the methods used by the Nazis to eradicate the Jewish population in Poland.

✱ An excellent group of association copies, inscribed to the writer Andrew Sinclair (1935-2019) and his wife and fellow author Sonia Melchett (b. 1928). Golding and Melchett had a lengthy friendship, Sinclair would later state that knowing Golding had been his greatest inspiration and privilege. Association copies of Golding's works are rare.

"William Golding was the only writer I have ever pursued. An Angry Young novel I wrote in three weeks when up at Cambridge, The Breaking of Bumbo, outsold Lord of the Flies that year for Faber & Faber. This was ludicrous, but it was followed by Golding's kindness when I wrote to him. He sent me an open invitation to visit him by the watercress beds at Bowerchalke." - Andrew Sinclair.

Freedman (Barnett) POST EARLY IN CHRISTMAS WEEK, colour lithograph, c.760 x 510mm., framed and glazed, General Post Office, 1937.

✱ One of several posters designed by Freedman for the Post Office. "These brightly-coloured designs have a freshness of design which still have considerable appeal some sixty-five years later. There are no pictorial elements in these eye-catching displays and their strengths lie in the bold lettering and background colours and textures which deliver the message in a totally uncompromising manner." E. SEGUY.

182

Seguy (E.A.) INSECTES, FIRST EDITION, 20 superb pochoir coloured phototype plates, loose as issued with 4pp. letterpress in original cloth-backed pictorial board portfolio with ties, folio, Paris, Editions Duchartre et Van Buggenhoudt, [1928].

✱ Seguy (1889-1985), working in Paris in the early 1920s, spanned the Art Nouveau and Art Deco periods, producing a series of magnificent portfolios of images based on the natural world. In his book on the period Ray says: "In comparison with their variety and brilliance, much Art Deco illustration seems pallid and constrained." (Ray, The Art Deco Book in France). The first 16 plates depict large format insects with 5 examples crowded onto each plate; the final 4 plates show decorative patterns incorporating insect motifs and designs.

Nijinsky (Vaslav).- Benois (Alexandre Nikolayevich, designer for the Ballets Russes under Sergei Diaghilev, 1870-1960) ORIGINAL COSTUME DESIGN FOR NIJINSKY IN THE BALLETS RUSSES PRODUCTION OF 'LE PAVILLON D'ARIMDE', pen and black ink with watercolour over pencil, signed in pencil and extensively annotated by the artist, inscribed 'Le Pavillon d'Armide', 2me version au Théâtre de Châtelet a Paris, Premier spectacle de la première saison des Ballets Russes du S. Diaghilev, Mai 1909', upper left, and at the right side 'Costume de Vaslav Nijinsky dans le rôle de l'Esclave favori d'Armide (1re apperition de Nijinsky devant le public Parisien), Pas de trois avec Mlle T. Karsavina et Alexandra Fedorova', sheet 335 x 255 mm (13¼ x 10 in), bears circular ink stamp 'Paris, Douanes, Exposition' verso, unframed, [circa 1909-1930s]

Provenance:

Eardley Knollys, friend and associate of the Bloomsbury Group, artist, critic and owner of the Storrán Gallery, London.

Exhibited:

'Benois', Storrán Gallery, London, ca.1941

✱ An important design relating to the very first production to be staged by Sergei Diaghilev's Ballets Russes, in Paris in 1909, making it also, as noted on this design, the very first sight the Parisian audience would have of this rising star, Nijinsky.

Alexandre Benois can claim a huge amount of the credit for this ballet, writing the libretto and designing the sets as well as the costumes. It was choreographed by Michel Fokine, with music written by Nikolai Tcherepnin. When first performed at the Mariinsky, the principal dancers alongside Nijinsky were Anna Pavlova as Armida and Pavel Gerdt as Vicomte René de Beaugency. When it transferred to the Théâtre de Châtelet in Paris, those roles were first performed by Vera Karalli and Mikhail Mordkin, respectively.

Benois produced related designs not only at the production's first inception, but for its revised staging in Paris and again, significantly, in the 1930s as he reflected on and re-imagined some of his work as he assembled his memoirs for eventual publication in 1941 and prepared for the dedicated one-man show at the Storrán Gallery. The present drawing would appear to be from the latter reflections, highlighting his continuing and evolving fascination with this pioneering ballet.

ORIGINAL COSTUME DESIGN FOR THE BALLETS RUSSES PRODUCTION OF 'PETRUSHKA', brush and black ink with watercolour over pencil, signed in pencil and annotated by the artist, sheet 315 x 245 mm (12¼ x 9¾ in), unframed, [circa 1911-1930s]

Provenance:

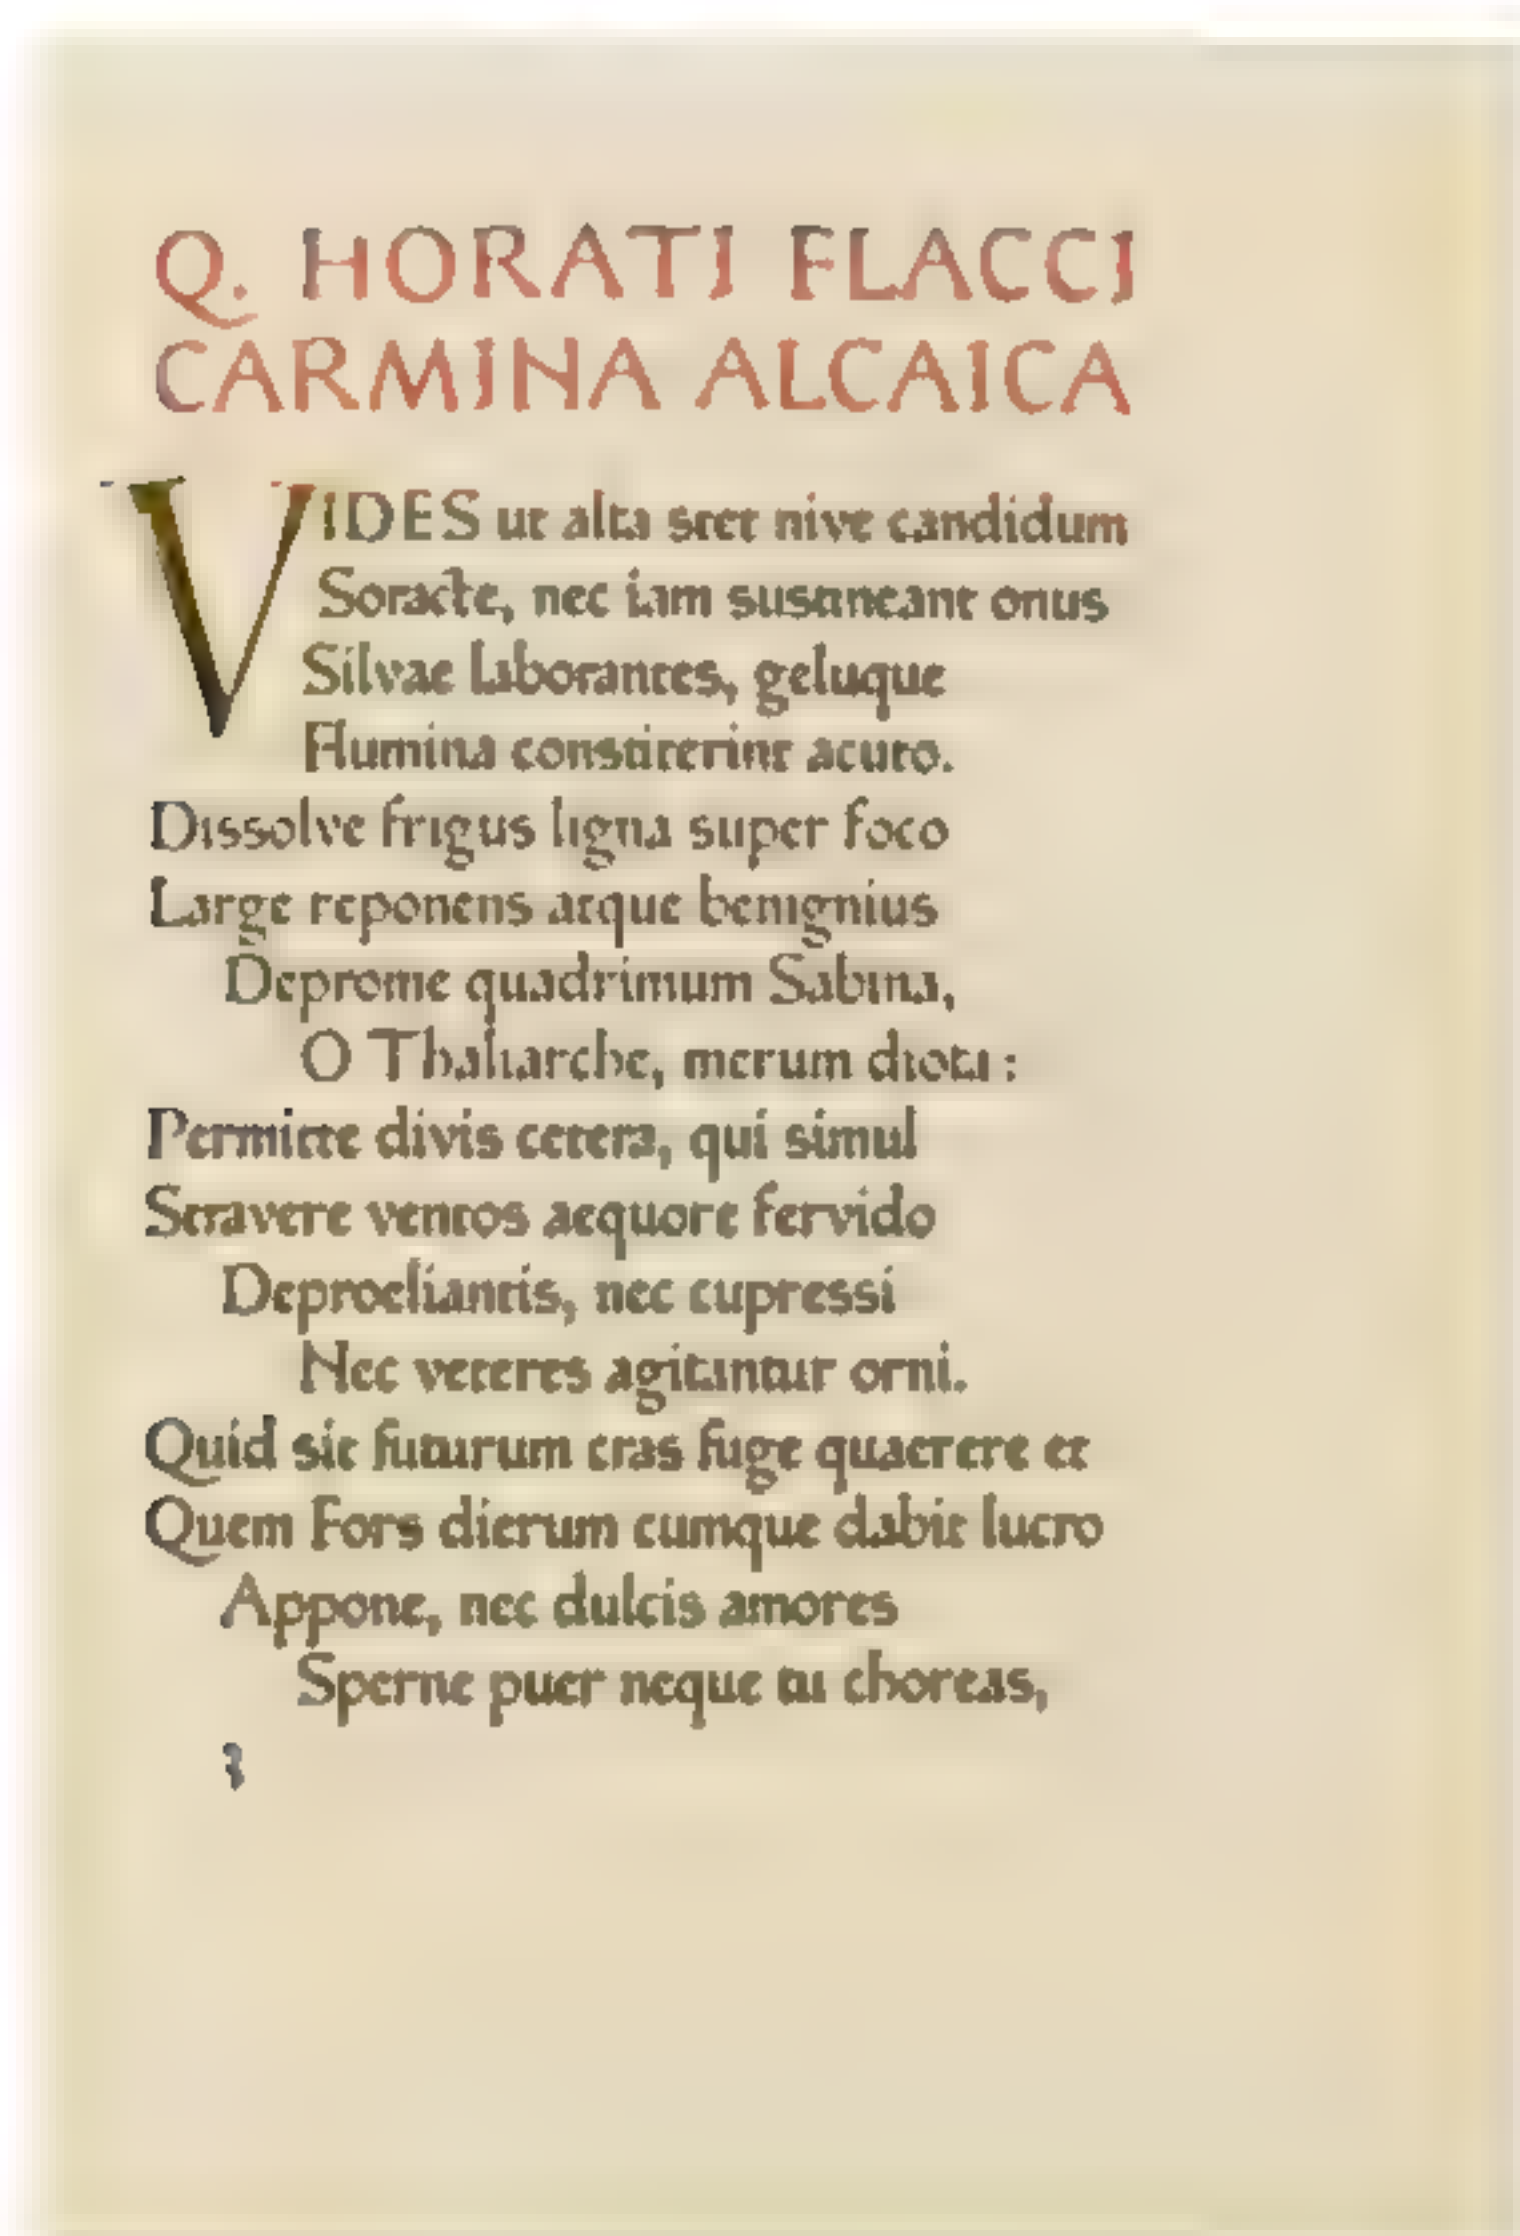

Eardley Knollys, friend and associate of the Bloomsbury Group, artist, critic and owner of the Storrán Gallery, London.

Exhibited:

'Benois', Storrán Gallery, London, ca. 1941

✱ A design for one of the masqueraders in the last, dramatic, scene, who dance through the street before the fatal fight between the Moor and Petrushka. The pencil notes advise on the different fabrics to be used, the need to keep the huge masks as light as possible, and that all the masqueraders must carry such lanterns.

uncut, spine faded, [Reid A12i], 8vo, [Maastricht, privately printed for Baron Emile van der Borch van Verwolde by A.A.M. Stols], 1933.

✱ One of Buckland Wright's most collected works, and on which he continued to work after publication. The illustrations appear as white line engravings in this first edition but were reworked as silhouettes with additional white line hatching for the second edition. The final illustration of a female nude with three ravens refers to the coat-of-arms of Emile, Baron van der Borch van Verwolde who commissioned the book from Stols. It also served as his bookplate.

Petherick (John). SOURCES OF THE NILE. SUBSCRIPTION TO RAISE £2,000 FOR SENDING AN EXPEDITION... TO AID THAT OF CAPTAIN SPEKE, ALREADY DISPATCHED BY WAY OF ZANZIBAR....App., spotting, short marginal tear to second f., unbound, split to head of spine, 8vo, [1861].

✱ Unrecorded pamphlet raising funds for Petherick's ill-starred expedition to convey relief to Captains Speke and Grant. Subscribers include Joseph Banks and John Gould.

Funds were successfully raised for the expedition and Petherick and his wife arrived at the pre-arranged meeting place of Gondokoro a few days prior to Speke and Grant. As they had time on their hands the Pethericks decided to make a nearby journey collecting samples of local plants and fishes. Unfortunately during this time Speke and Grant arrived, dismayed to find their relief party absent. On his return to Europe Speke spoke out against Petherick and rumours began to circulate that the couple had been hunting rather than collecting samples and had become involved in the slave trade. Petherick's reputation and finances were badly damaged by the affair.

Colony of Virginia.- Certaine Directions for the Sending of Men, Commodities, & Cattle to Virginia, manuscript in Secretary hand, 10pp., a few small stains in margins, edges chipped, disbound, folio, [? c. 1609].

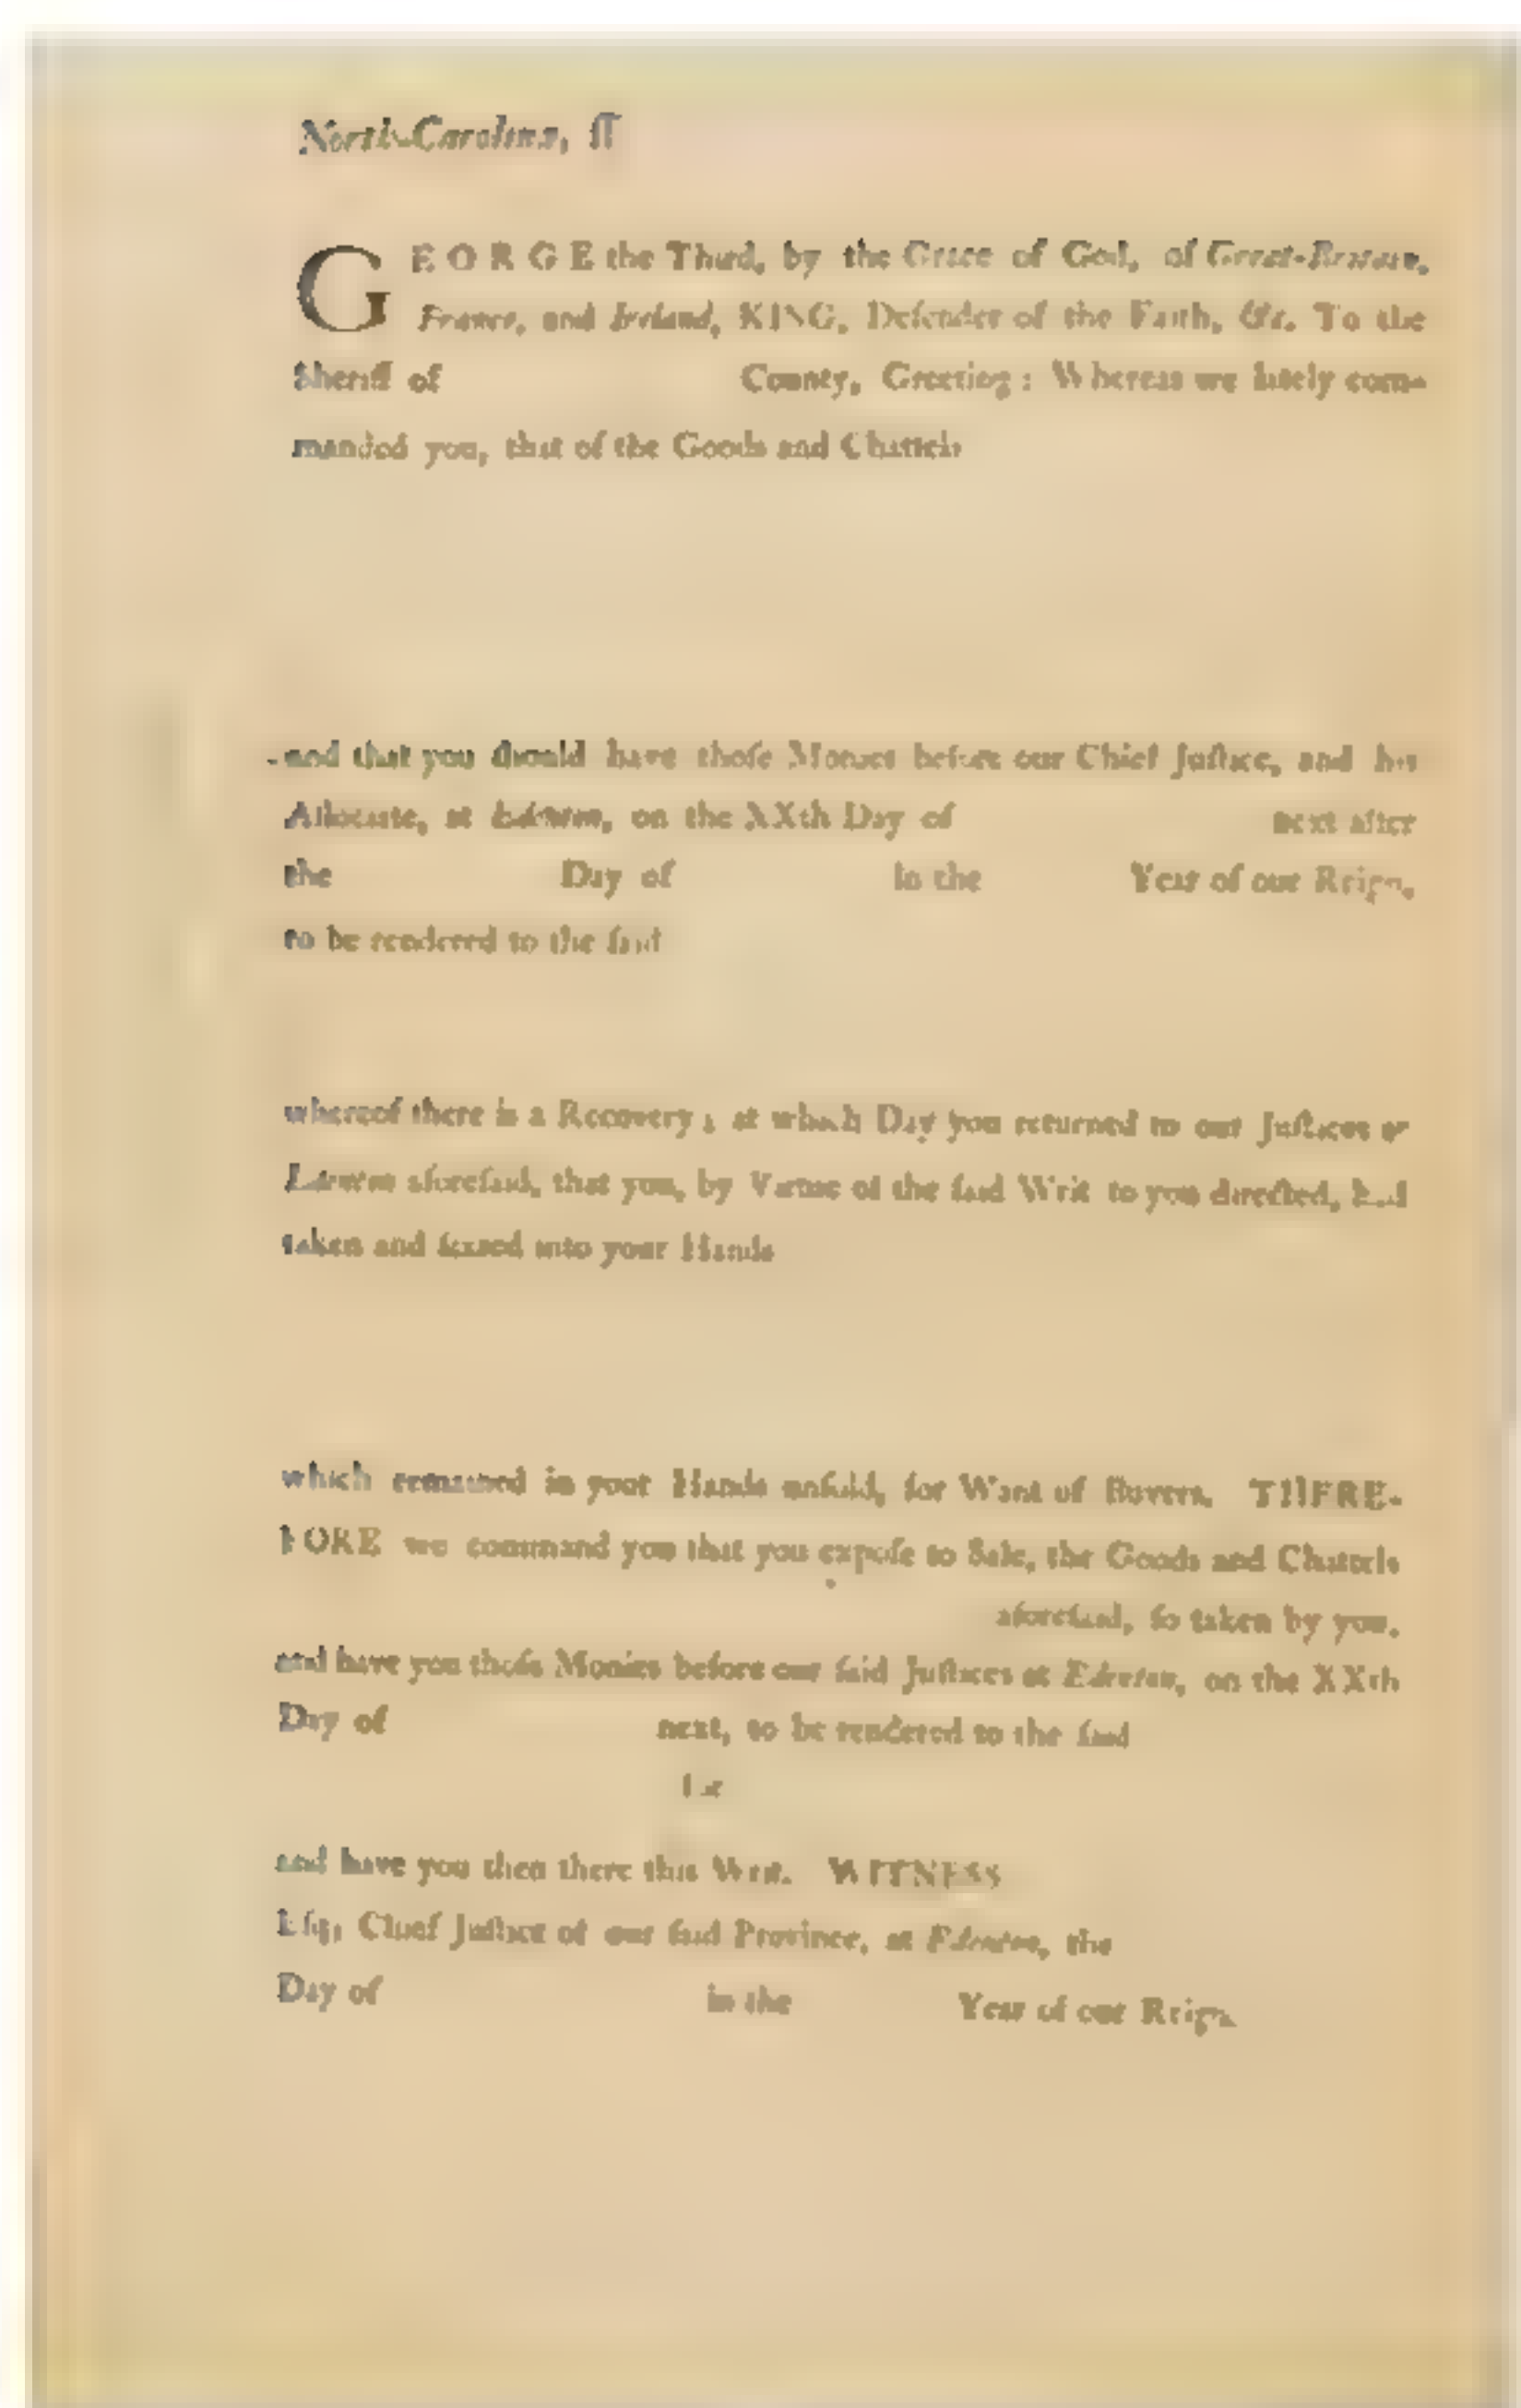

✱✱ ADVICE TO PROSPECTIVE "PASSENGERS" AND COLONISTS TO VIRGINIA. The manuscript details previous experiences, such as when to arrive ("beginninge of July"), types of farmers, ("should be lustie"), what to do on their first arrival ("let them take good care of lying on the ground"), and what sort of amounts of commodities for trading ("be 1200 l"), provisions and allowances of food "bisket bread").

Subheadings comprise: (1). Trading: "ffor Commodities that are fittest to be carried to Virginia, and these most ysefull and vendible..."; (2). Provisions. "A note of the quantitie of such provisions as are to be laden aboard any Ship that goes for Virginia to carry the proporcon of 500 Passingers. The time they must lay their victuall in for must be 3 moneths or 90 daies". (3). The allowances that is daily made... this rate to a Messe, foure Men being accounted a Messe... "

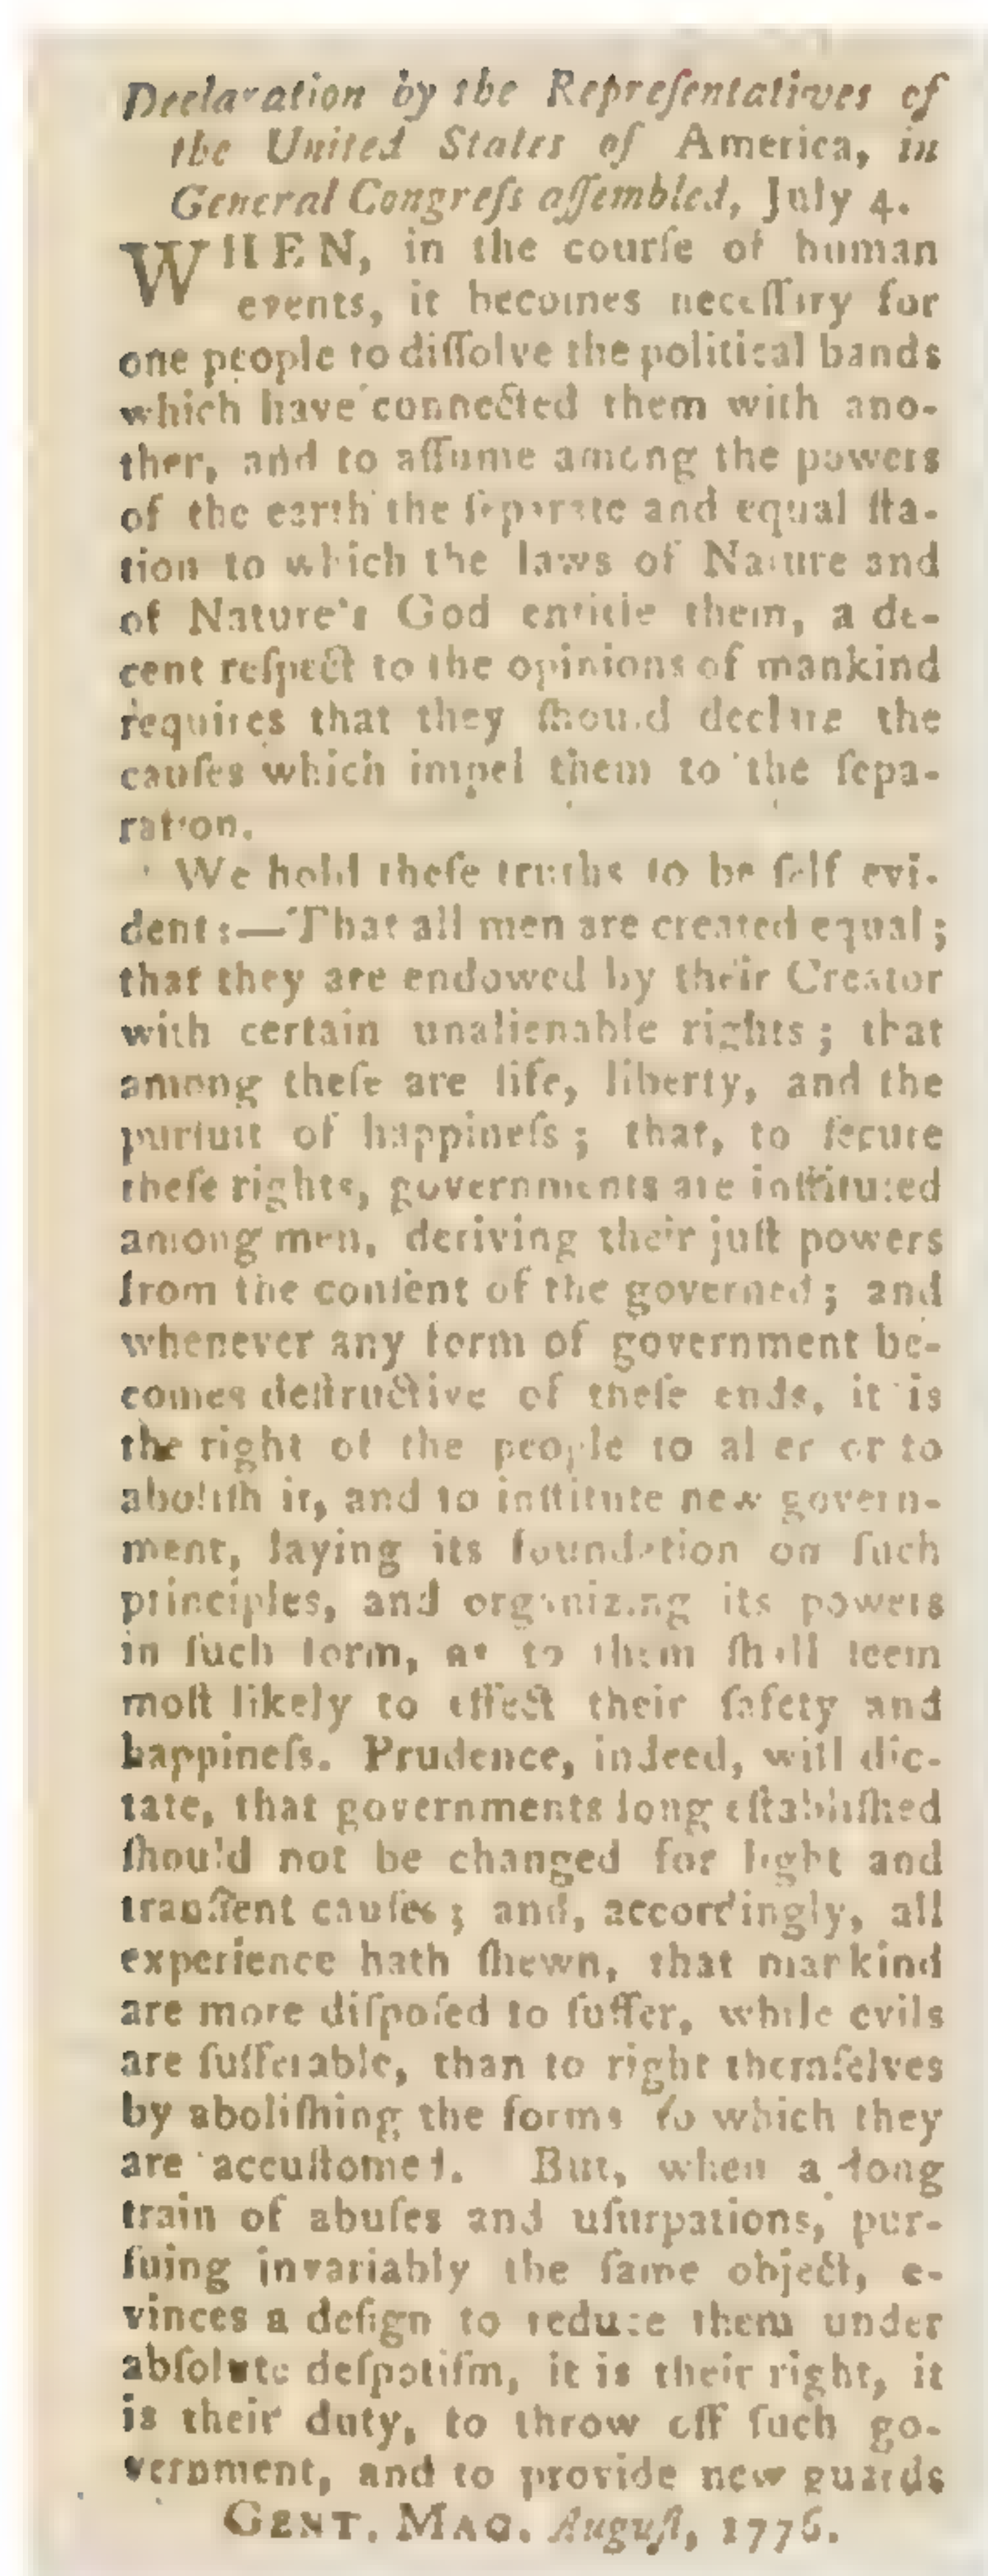

Of the advice in this manuscript for colonising Virginia, the 1609 expedition seems to be the most apposite. The writer has drawn on previous expeditions and is aware of the qualities prospective colonists will need, what sort of vendible stock to take for trade (rugs, blankets, wine etc.), and food ("Oates"), in particular cattle ("They are of great prize in Virginia").

The colonisation of Virginia by the Virginia Company is a history of repeated setbacks and failure. Most colonists were unsuited to farming, and other factors such as adverse weather conditions and poor relations with the First Nations people resulted in extremely high mortality rates. The colonies main hope of survival were the supply ships and this manuscript probably relates to the Third Supply which led to shipwreck of the Sea Venture at Bermuda with the loss of essential supplies for the colony. This led to the "Starving Time" in the winter of 1609-1610, the abandonment of the settlement at Jamestown and its re-establishment by a Fourth Supply mission in 1610.

Peace with America.- IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON WEDNESDAY 27TH FEBRUARY, 1782, THE RIGHT HONOURABLE GENERAL CONWAY MOVED A RESOLUTION..., single sheet broadside, printed in red and black, contemporay ink inscription to verso, a few short tears, minor soiling at edges, folds, [ESTC T108084], folio (524 x 396mm.), Printed for J. Stockdale, 1782.

✱ VERY RARE. No copies traced at auction. ESTC lists copies at BL, John Carter Brown and New York State libraries only. The 'ayes' "For Peace with America" are listed in red and include Charles James Fox, Edmund Burke and William Wilberforce; the 'noes' in black lost the vote by 19 thus precipitating the fall of Lord North's government, leading to Rockingham's short-lived second term as Prime Minister (he died in early July 1782) and then his successor Lord Shelburne, who finally succeeded in securing peace with America in April 1783. The debate of 27th February can therefore be seen as one of the major catalysts for advancing the terms with which America fully and finally achieved independence.

Egypt.- DESCRIPTION DE L'ÉGYPTÉ, OU RECUEIL DES OBSERVATIONS ET DES RECHERCHES QUI ONT ÉTÉ FAITES EN ÉGYPTÉ PENDANT L'EXPÉDITION DE L'ARMÉE FRANÇAISE, 38 vol. (24 text vol. in 26 and 12 plate vol.), second edition, 1 plate vol. with hand-coloured frontispiece, another with engraved title and portrait of Louis XVIII, 967 engraved plates, many folding or double page, a few folding with small tears at central folds, some foxing to plate margins but generally outside plate mark, contemporary quarter morocco, some wear to spines including small tears and chips at ends, [c.f. for first edition; Atabey 343; Blackmer 476; Hilmy I, pp 239-245] 8vo and elephant folio (670 x 540mm.), Paris, C.L.F. Panckoucke, 1821-30.

✱ THE RARE "PANCKOUCKE" EDITION, COMPLETE WITH ALL PLATES. This monumental work was the fruit of the scholarly enterprise envisioned by Napoleon during his invasion into Egypt in the late 1790s. Over 160 scholars and scientists, known as the "savants", accompanied the French army - including figures like Monge, Berthollet, Fourier, Geoffroy-Saint-Hilaire, Redoute, and Savigny - their aim being to produce the first ever scientific survey of Egyptian antiquities, culture, language, natural history, geography, ethnography etc. Defeated by the British and forced to relinquish the expedition's physical bounty, famously including the Rosetta stone, the French nonetheless negotiated to retain their scholarly notes. More than a decade later of careful collaboration, these notes emerged as this landmark collection. Not only arguably one of the most beautiful plate books of the nineteenth century, Le Description de l'Égypte established a new academic discipline, becoming the foundational work of Egyptology, and similarly sparked the vibrant wave of Egyptomania across Europe. The first edition appeared beginning in 1809, and this second edition, produced by the Charles Louis Fleury Panckoucke, was begun nearly before the first was completed, reproducing the plates of the first in full, without the hand colouring. This copy includes the hand-coloured frontispiece often missing.

The plate volumes comprise: (i) Antiquities, 5 vol. [hand-coloured frontispiece, 3 additional engraved plates ("Medailles trouvees en Syrie," "Tableau synoptique des constellations" Plate A, "Produits de la machine a graver"), 16 numbered engraved plates of the Rosetta Stone (on 8 sheets), 419 numbered engraved plates, plate 103 of Etat Moderne (misbound)]; (ii) Etat Moderne, 2 vol. [1 additional engraved plate ("Canevas trigonometrique du Kaire/d'Alexandrie"), 169 numbered engraved plates (see above, plate 103 bound in Antiquities V)]; (iii) Histoire Naturelle, 3 vol. [244 engraved numbered or lettered plates]; (iv) Atlas Geographique (spine title) [52 engraved maps and plates]; (v) Grande Atlas [engraved title, featuring portrait of Louis XVIII, 63 oversized plates].

Einstein (Albert) RELATIVITY. THE SPECIAL & GENERAL THEORY, translated by Robert W. Lawson, FIRST EDITION IN ENGLISH, half-title, portrait frontispiece, diagrams and equations in text, 8pp. publisher's catalogue at end, very light spotting to head of first few leaves, browning to endpapers, original red cloth, light fading to spine, a couple of small marks to upper cover, corners very slightly bumped, a good copy preserved in modern cloth drop-back box, [cf. PMM 408, first edition], 8vo, 1920.

✱ The first English edition of one of the most influential scientific works of the 20th century. First published in Germany in 1916, this translation is of the third German edition of 1918 but contains an additional section: Appendix III 'The Experimental Confirmation of the General Theory of Relativity'.

« J'ai étudié la conductibilité de l'air sous l'influence des rayons de l'uranium, découverts par M. Becquerel, et j'ai cherché si des corps autres que les composés de l'uranium étaient susceptibles de rendre l'air conducteur de l'électricité. J'ai employé pour cette étude un condensateur à plateaux; l'un des plateaux était recouvert d'une couche uniforme d'uranium ou d'une autre substance finement pulvérisée. (Diamètre des plateaux, 8^{cm}; distance, 3^{cm}.) On établissait entre les plateaux une différence de potentiel de 100 volts. Le courant qui traversait le condensateur était mesuré en valeur absolue au moyen d'un électromètre et d'un quartz piézoélectrique.

« J'ai examiné un grand nombre de métaux, sels, oxydes et minéraux (²). Le Tableau ci-après donne, pour chaque substance, l'intensité du courant i en ampères (ordre de grandeur, 10⁻¹¹). Mr. Cathode Rays. By J. J. THOMSON, M.A., F.R.S., Cavendish Professor of Experimental Physics, Cambridge.

THE experiments discussed in this paper were undertaken in the hope of gaining some information as to the nature of the Cathode Rays. The most diverse opinions are held as to these rays; according to the almost unanimous opinion of German physicists they are due to some process in the ether to which—inasmuch as in a uniform magnetic field their course is curved and not rectilinear—no phenomenon hitherto observed is analogous; another view of these rays is that, so far from being wholly ethereal, they are in fact wholly material, and that they mark the paths of particles of matter charged with negative electricity. It would seem at first sight that it ought not to be difficult to discriminate between views so different, yet experience shows that this is not the case, as amongst the physicists who have most deeply studied the subject can be found supporters of either.

The electron-particle theory has for purposes of research a great advantage over the ethereal theory, since it is definite and its consequences can be predicted; with the ethereal theory it is impossible to predict what will happen under any given circumstances, as on this theory we are dealing with hitherto known to the Cambridge Philosophical Magazine (Fourth Ser., vol. 44, 1897), and in a Friday Evening Discourse at the Royal Institution ("Electricity," May 21, 1896).

XXII. A New Modification of the Cloud Method of Determining the Elementary Electrical Charge and the Most Probable Value of that Charge. By Prof. R. A. MILLIKAN, University of Chicago.

1. Introduction.

AMONGST all physical constants there are two which will be universally admitted to be of predominant importance: the one is the velocity of light, which now appears in many of the fundamental equations of theoretical physics, and the other is the ultimate, or elementary, electrical charge, a knowledge of which makes possible a determination of the absolute values of all atomic and molecular weights, the absolute number of molecules in a given weight of substance, the kinetic energy of agitation of any molecule at a given temperature, and a considerable number of other important physical quantities.

While the velocity of light is now known with a precision of one part in twenty thousand, the value of the elementary electrical charge has until very recently been exceedingly uncertain. The results herewith presented seem to show that the method here used for its determination—a modification of the Thomson-Wilson cloud method—turns out the value of e with a directness, certainty, and precision, easily comparable with that obtained by any of the methods which Measurement of the elementary electric charge.- Millikan (Robert Andrews) "A New Modification of the Cloud Method of Determining the Elementary Electrical Charge and the Most Probable Value of that Charge", in The London, Edinburgh, and Dublin Philosophical Magazine and Journal of Science. Sixth series, vol. 19, 2 plates (1 folding), diagrams, illustrations and tables in text, original printed wrappers, neatly and sympathetically rebacked, 8vo, Taylor and Francis, 1910.

✱ MILLIKAN'S FAMOUS OIL DROP EXPERIMENT that provided the first definitive proof that electric charge is made up of elementary indivisible quantities, and that the charge is not a statistically averaged quantity. From this experiment the value of the electron charge could be readily determined. For his study of the electronic charge and the photoelectric effect, Millikan won the 1923 Nobel Prize for Physics.

Glisson (Francis), George Bate & Ahasuero Regemorter. DE RACHITIDE, SIVE MORBO Puerili, QUI VULGO THE RICKETS DICTUR..., second edition, with blank A1 bound at end of preliminaries, imprimatur leaf following title, woodcut diagrams, paper flaw tears to G7 affecting a couple of letters and marginal hole to M1, very light water-stain to head of first few leaves, modern vellum, black morocco label, [Wing G856], 12mo, Tho. Roycroft for Laurence Sadler, 1660.

✱ The first substantial account of infantile rickets, first published in 1650, and one of the earliest collaborative works of medical research. Glisson also identified infantile scurvy as being a separate condition. Rare in commerce.

Hamilton (Frank H.) WHITE'S PHYSIOLOGICAL MANIKIN, large glazed double-page chromolithographed male anatomical figure with numerous flaps to reveal layers of the body, with additional large figures of an eye and an ear also with flaps, with riveted movable metal tabs to hold flaps open, a little soiled, a few creases, 2 large lithographed plates of multiple magnified microscopic sections of parts of the body, a little soiled and stained, mounted on 3 cloth-edged boards, rubbed and slightly damaged, some repairs, spine reinforced, c.930 x 630mm., New York, James T. White & Co., 1886.

✱ Magnificent almost life-size anatomical chart for the use of medical students showing the muscles, tendons, bones, arteries, brain and organs of the body. Without the index and text-book issued to accompany the chart, and the stand.

Immunology.- Metchnikoff (Elie) LEÇONS SUR LA PATHOLOGIE COMPARÉE DE L'INFLAMMATION, FIRST EDITION IN FRENCH, PRESENTATION COPY TO PAUL EHRLICH [WITH WHOM HE LATER SHARED THE NOBEL PRIZE], half-title, 3 chromolithograph plates at end, illustrations, library cloth-backed boards with library tape marks to spine and covers, 8vo, Paris, G. Masson, 1892.

✱ A FINE ASSOCIATION COPY. Metchnikoff and Ehrlich shared the 1908 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine for discovering the major types and functions of phagocytes and the types of blood leukocytes respectively. Their work led to discovering how to generate and use antibodies to protect against bacterial toxins. We have been unable to trace any other works inscribed by either to the other. The inscription here reads: "Herrn Professor, Dr Ehrlich, hochachtungsvoll in freundlicher Erinnerung des Verfassers."

Laennec (René Théophile Hyacinthe) TRAITÉ DE L'AUSCULTATION MÉDIATE ET DES MALADIES DES POUMONS ET DU COEUR, 2 vol., second edition, half-titles, 4 double-page engraved plates, vol.2 with final blank, plates with numbers shaved and light offsetting, occasional foxing and slight browning to text, light water-staining at beginning and end, mostly marginal but affecting lower outer corner of plates, old ink stamp to titles, contemporary ink signature of Dr.H.Goudet to front free endpapers, original half green cloth, very slightly rubbed, [cf.PMM 280, first edition of 1819], 8vo, Paris, 1826.

✱ A classic of medical history, containing the first description of Laennec's ground-breaking invention of the stethoscope. This was the greatest advance in physical diagnosis between Auenbrugger's percussion and Roentgen's discovery of X-rays. Laennec used his new tool to study the sounds made by the movements of the heart and lungs, and from this work stems our modern knowledge of diseases of the chest. This second edition, the last edited by Laennec himself, is considerably altered and enlarged from the first edition of 1819 with each disease described in detail, making it "the most important treatise on diseases of the thoracic organs ever written" (Garrison, History of Medicine, p. 412).

£400 - 600

Lizars (John) A SYSTEM OF ANATOMICAL PLATES OF THE HUMAN BODY, second edition, engraved vignette title and 103 hand-coloured plates (numbered 1-101 and 9 & 32 bis plates), tissue guards, occasional spotting or marginal soiling but mostly to guards, contemporary half morocco, rubbed, rebaked preserving old spine, [cf.Wellcome III, 531, first edition of 1824], folio, Edinburgh, W.H. Lizars...S.Highley...W.Curry, [c.1839].

£400 - 600

323

Mercuriale (Girolamo) DE ARTE GYMNASICA LIBRI SEX, second edition, title with woodcut device, woodcut initials, 2 full-page plans and 21 illustrations, all but one full-page, slight worming and some light soiling and staining, all mostly marginal, colophon leaf torn (repaired), modern vellum, [Adams M1320; EDIT 16 46968; G & M 1986.1; Mortimer/Harvard Italian 302], 4to, Venice, Giunta, 1573.

✱ The first illustrated edition of this important work on exercise and health, first published in 1569. "One of the earliest books to discuss the therapeutic value of gymnastics and sports generally for the cure of disease and disability, and an important study of gymnastics in the ancient world". (Garrison-Morton)

Swammerdam (Jan) DISPUTATIO MEDICA INAUGURALIS, CONTINENS SELECTAS DE RESPIRATIONE POSITIONES, 4pp., ONLY EDITION, title with woodcut printer's device, woodcut initial and tail-piece, light spotting, unbound (spine reinforced with strip of marbled paper), preserved in modern cloth portfolio with gilt-stamped roan label to upper cover, [Not in Wellcome], 4to, Leiden, Elsevier, 1667.

✱ Swammerdam's rare inaugural dissertation on respiration and his first published work. Based largely on research carried out in 1663 it predates his Tractatus physico-anatomico-medicus de respiratione usuque pulmonum issued later in 1667 which is generally regarded as his first work on respiration.

Library Hub records only 4 UK copies, WorldCat adds 2 in Germany and the Netherlands.

£400 - 600

Trotter (Thomas) MEDICINA NAUTICA: AN ESSAY ON THE DISEASES OF SEAMEN..., 3 vol., FIRST EDITION, with half-title in vol.2 and engraved plate in vol.3 (bound as frontispiece), lacking 4pp. advertisements at end of vol.2, faint trace of library stamp to titles and plate but unobtrusive, occasional light foxing but generally clean, plate a little offset on title of vol.3, N4 in vol.1 and L8 in vol.2 torn and repaired, a few other minor marginal tears, modern half speckled calf, black morocco labels, [Wellcome V, 301], 8vo, T.Cadell, Jun. & W.Davies, 1797-1803.

✱ Important work on the health and conditions of sailors on board ship, with accounts of the various diseases encountered and recommendations for improvements in living conditions and sanitation. The work led to the adoption of taking limes to sea as a prevention against scurvy and of smallpox vaccination amongst sailors.

Tuson (Edward William) MYOLOGY..., 2 vol. including Supplement, mixed set, vol.1 second edition, with 8 hand-coloured lithographed plates with multiple flaps, each with explanatory leaf of text, with prospectus for Supplement tipped to title and flyer for Tuson's lecture course mounted on front pastedown, plate 6 lacking flaps A & B, light water-staining at end affecting loose final plate, original cloth-backed boards with paper label to upper cover, rubbed and stained, spine torn and frayed, Supplement FIRST EDITION, with 9 hand-coloured lithographed plates with multiple flaps, each with explanatory leaf of text, plate 2 with one flap torn, one small flap detached and tipped in at beginning, first two plates with short tear to fore-edge, the first affecting image, ink inscription to front pastedown, contemporary half calf (slightly smaller), rubbed, spine torn and chipped, both rather soiled internally with a few spots or small stains, one or two flaps detached, large folio, 1828.

* Complex teaching atlas with superb plates printed by Hullmandel, some with numerous flaps to simulate dissection. Tuson was a protégé of Astley Cooper and succeeded Charles Bell as surgeon at the Middlesex Hospital.

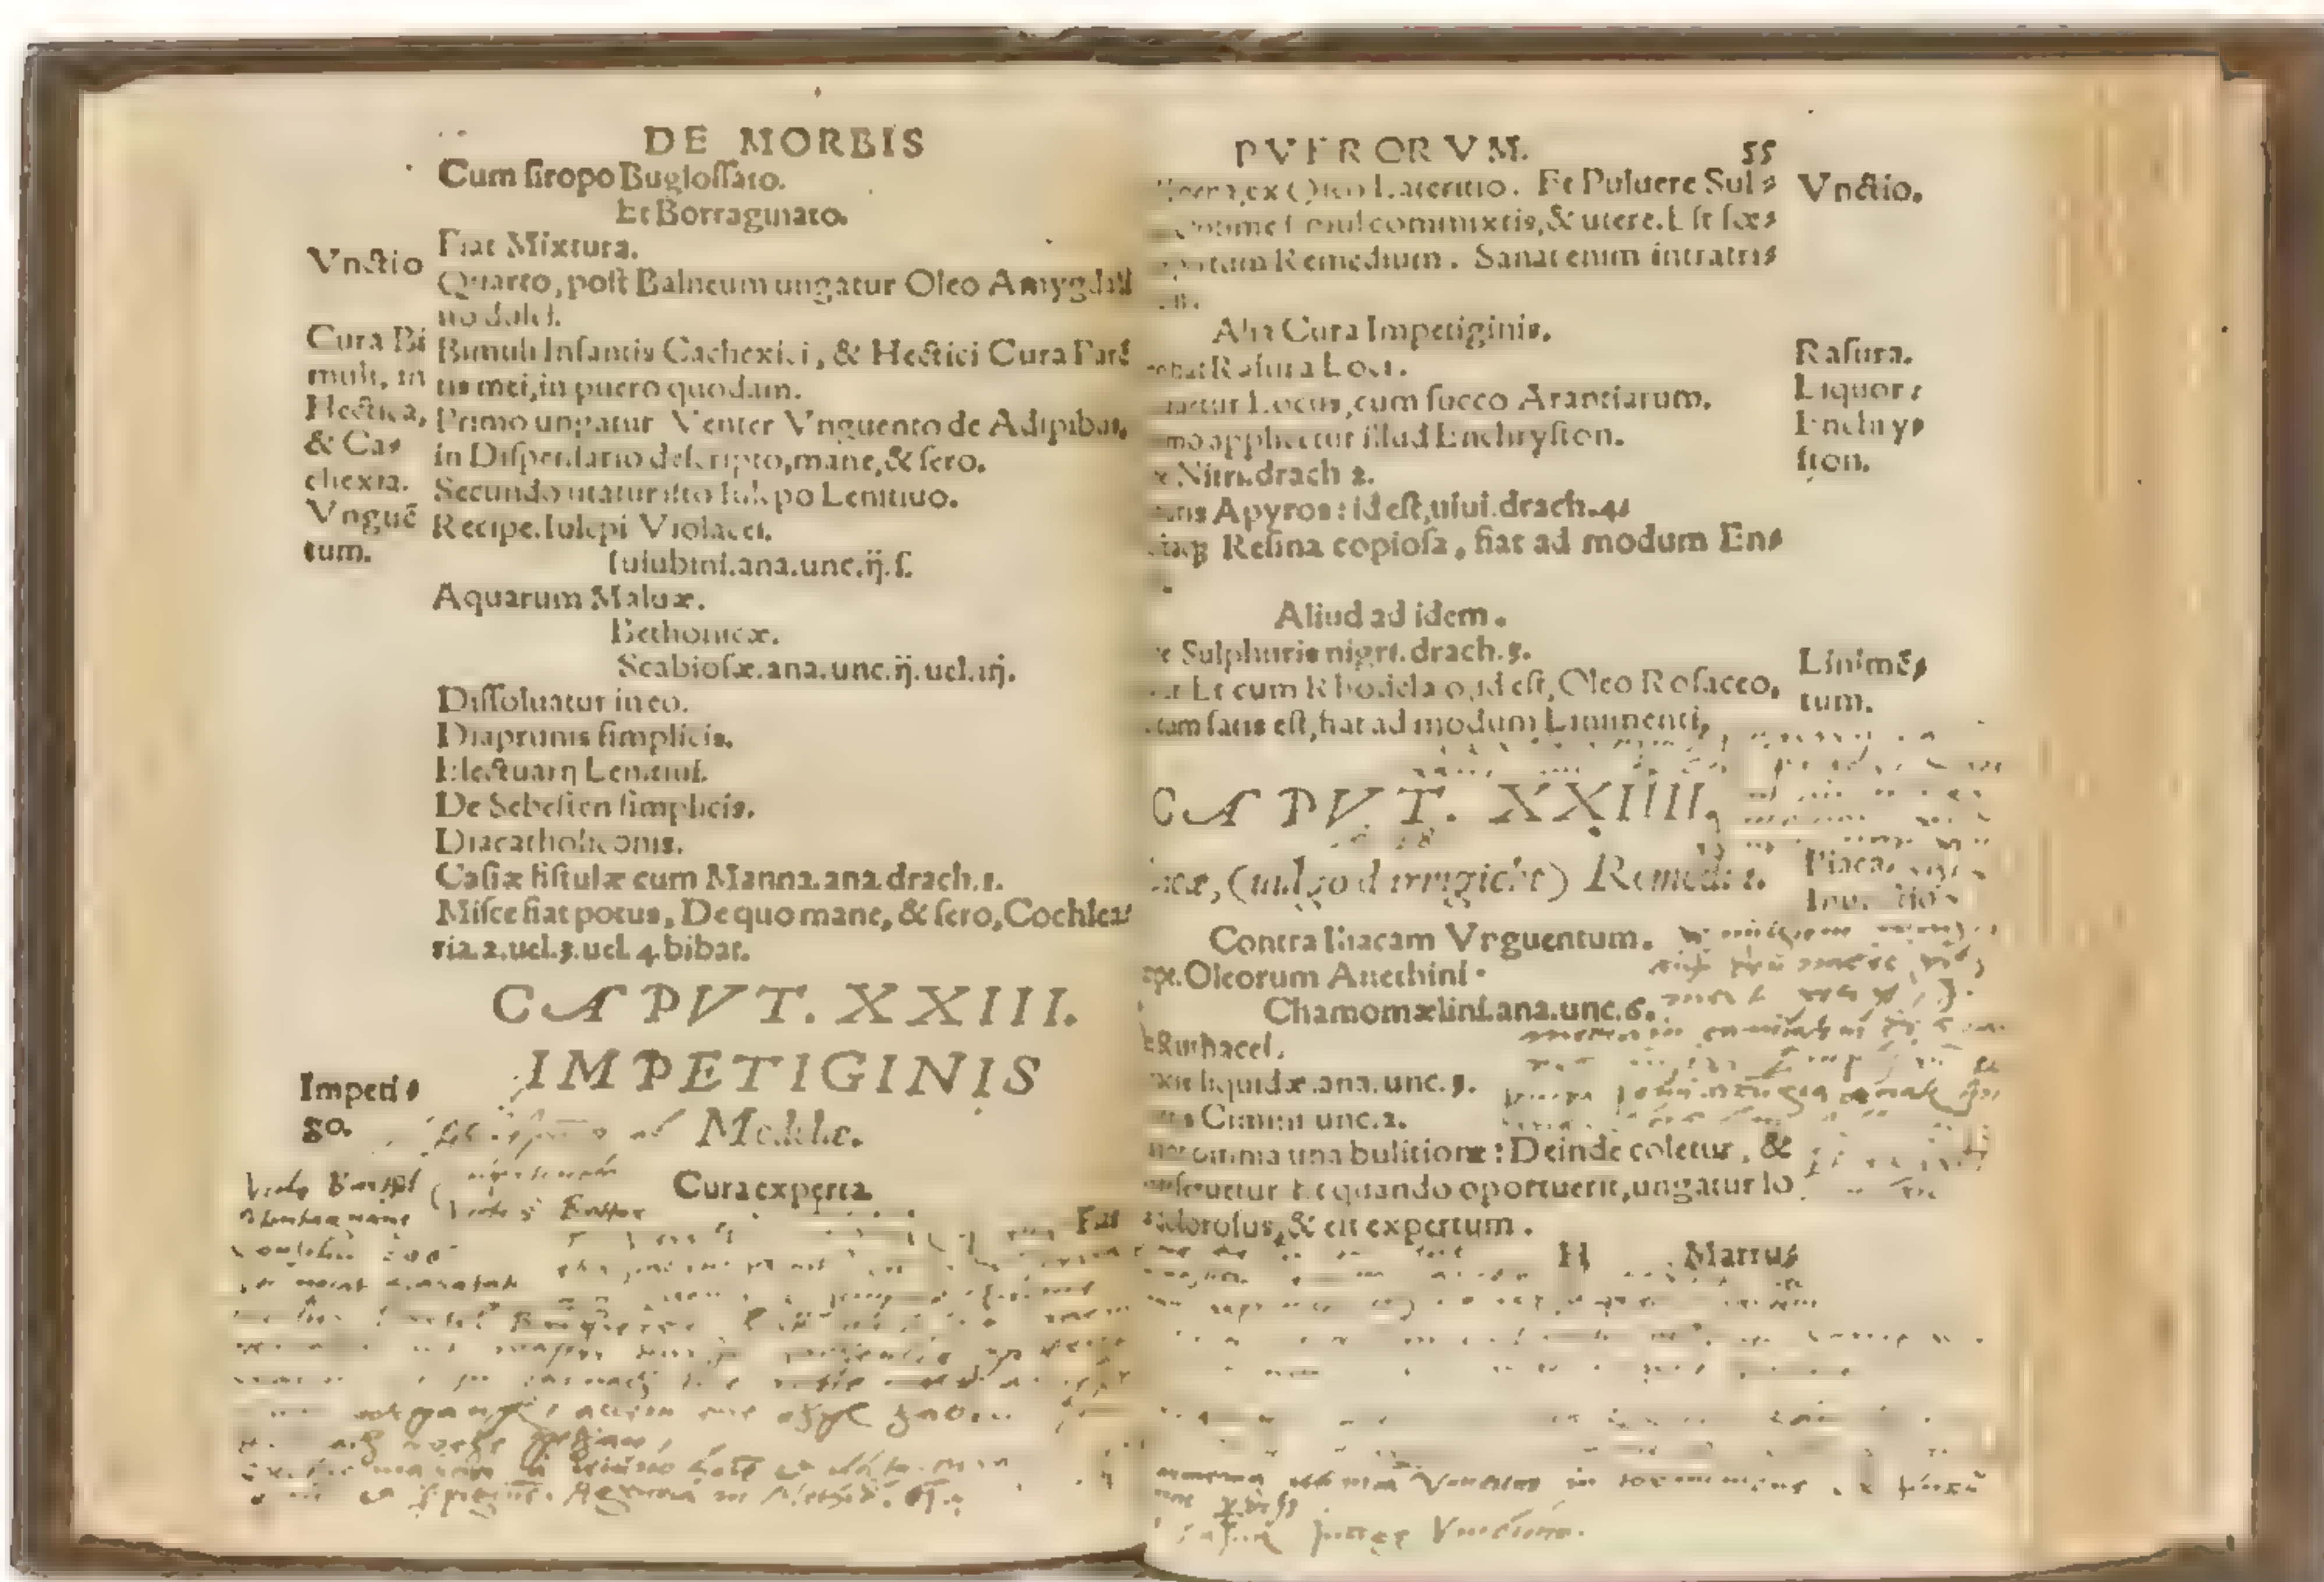

£600 - 800

Vittori (Leonello) DE AEGRITUDINIBUS INFANTUM TRACTATUS..., FIRST EDITION, large woodcut device to verso of Aa8, with final blank, extensive contemporary ink manuscript annotations to title and numerous leaves, slight worming to inner margin of signatures D & E affecting a few letters, small repair to inner margin of final two leaves at foot, ink library stamp to verso of title and final leaf of text, modern mottled calf with decorative border in blind, red calf label, [Durling 4668; VD16 V 1768; Not in Adams], 8vo, Ingolstadt, A.Weissenhorn, 1544.

* Scarce 16th century Italian handbook of paediatric treatment, including advice on diarrhoea, constipation, earache, and disturbed sleep, and this copy with the addition of many contemporary notes. We have been unable to trace any other copies at auction except for this one, sold in America in 2017. Library Hub cites 5 UK copies.

Obstetrics & Gynaecology.- Smellie (William) A SET OF ANATOMICAL TABLES, WITH EXPLANATIONS, AND AN ABRIDGMENT OF THE PRACTICE OF MIDWIFERY, FIRST EDITION, 39 engraved plates by Grignion after Jan van Rymdyk, Pieter Camper and the author, each plate with accompanying leaf of text, a little browned, some spotting and light offsetting, endpapers brittle and frayed, contemporary ink inscriptions to front pastedown, also bookplates of doctors Henry Marshall and Chas.S.Fisher Jr., old boards rebaked and recorned in calf, red morocco label, gilt spine, [Norman 1955; Wellcome V, 127], folio, 1754.

✱ Possibly one of only 100 copies printed. "Smellie was the leading forceps practitioner in London, and several of the plates illustrate the use of this instrument in various presentations of the foetus. These engravings are the first accurate anatomical illustrations of the foetus in utero." (Norman).

TERMS OF SALE

The sale of goods at our Live Auctions and your legal relationship, as Bidder and/or Buyer, with us and the Seller are governed by our Conditions of Business.

Please read our Conditions of Business carefully before bidding and contact us if you have any questions. Please note that if you register to bid and/or bid at auction you will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by and will comply with our Conditions of Business. If registering to buy over a live online Bidding Platform, including our own BidFORUM platform, you will be asked prior to every auction to confirm your agreement to our Conditions of Business before you are able to place a bid. You may also be asked to accept any third party terms and conditions when bidding via a third party Bidding Platform.

We may change our Conditions of Business from time to time, without notice to you.

We can be contacted in the following ways:

Telephone: +44 (0)20 7871 2640

Email: info@forumauctions.co.uk

Post: FAO Head of Operations, Forum Auctions Limited, Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS

Definitions and interpretation

In these Terms of Sale, the words 'you', 'yours', etc. refer to you as the Bidder or Buyer as the context requires. The words "we", "us", etc. refer to the Auctioneer. Any reference to a 'Clause' is to a clause of these Terms of Sale unless stated otherwise.

To make these Terms of Sale easier to read, we have given the following words a specific meaning:

"Auctioneer" means Forum Auctions Limited, a company registered in England and Wales with registration number 10048705 and VAT number 236 0168 28 and whose registered office is located at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS and/or its individual authorised auctioneer, as appropriate;

"Bidder" means a person participating or planning to participate in bidding at our auction;

"Bidding Platform" means any online bidding platform over which an auction is conducted allowing bidders to place bids. Bidding Platforms may be operated by the Auctioneer or by a third party service provider on the Auctioneer's behalf;

"Business Day" means any day that is not a weekend or public holiday in England and the Auctioneer is open for business;

"Buyer" means the Bidder who makes the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer by the fall of the hammer;

"Conditions of Business" means:

- (a) these Terms of Sale (bidding in Online Auctions is governed by our separate Online Terms of Sale);
- (b) the General Information for Buyers at Auction available in our catalogue and on our Website;
- (c) the listing of the Lot in our catalogue and on our Website including any special terms or symbols (please note that the most up-to-date listing will be on our Website);
- (d) any additional notice in relation to a Lot, whether in the saleroom, announced during an auction, on any Bidding Platform or our Website (in the event of any doubt about whether additional notices apply to the sale of a Lot, the information listed on our Website at the time of the auction will be deemed conclusive); and
- (e) our Website Terms of Use;

"Deliberate Forgery" means:

- (a) a copy or imitation made in our reasonable opinion with the intention of deceiving as to authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source or material;
- (b) described in the catalogue entry (as amended by any saleroom or Website notice) without qualification or any indication that there may be any uncertainty or conflict of opinion in relation to the work being such a copy or imitation; and
- (c) (c) which at the date of the auction or sale had a value materially less than it would have had if it had been as described;

"Estimate" means the price range within which, in our opinion, a Lot may reasonably be expected to sell. A reference to the "low Estimate" means the lower figure in such price range;

"Hammer Price" means the level of the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer for a Lot by the fall of the hammer;

"Live Auction" means a live public auction where members of the public are given the possibility of attending the sale in person.

"Lot(s)" means an item offered for sale or a group of items offered together;

"Online Auction" means an auction held over the Website or any Bidding Platform where members of the public are not given the possibility of attending the sale in person;

"Premium" means the fee that we will charge you on your purchase of a Lot to be calculated as set out in Clause 9.1.2 of these Terms of Sale;

"Pledge" means any security or charge over a Lot in favour of ourselves or any third party;

"Reserve" means the minimum Hammer Price at which a Lot may be sold;

"Seller" means the person(s) who consign Lots for sale at our auctions;

"Terms of Sale" means these standard terms of the contract of sale that a Bidder enters into when registering to bid in any Live Auction, as amended or updated from time to time;

"VAT" means Value Added Tax or any equivalent sales tax at the rate from time to time applicable;

"Website" means our website available at www.forumauctions.co.uk; and

"Website Terms of Use" means the terms of use of our Website as amended from time to time.

1. The contract between you, us and the Seller

- 1.1 Unless the Auctioneer is selling on its own behalf, the Auctioneer acts as agent for and on behalf of the Seller and the contract for sale is between the Buyer and the Seller.
- 1.2 Subject to the Auctioneer's discretion at Clause 3.2, the contract for sale of a Lot is formed on the fall of the hammer.
- 1.3 The contractual relationship between Bidders or Buyers, the Auctioneer and the Seller in relation to any Live Auction is governed by our Conditions of Business.
- 1.4 If you breach these Terms of Sale, you may be responsible for damages and/or losses suffered by a Seller or us. If we are contacted by a Seller who wishes to bring a claim against you, we may at our discretion provide the Seller with information or assistance in relation to that claim.
- 1.5 As agent for the Seller, we will not have any responsibility for any default or breach of obligations by you or the Seller (unless we are the Seller of the Lot).
- 1.6 If you purchase an unsold Lot after an auction, the contract for sale is formed when the sale is agreed in writing and the Price of the Lot shall be as set out at clause 9 except that any reference to Hammer Price shall be read as the agreed sale price. So far as appropriate, the remainder of these Terms of Sale shall apply to the sale as they would to an auction sale.

2. Bidder registration

- 2.1 You must register your details with us before bidding and provide us with any requested proof of identity, billing information and any further client due diligence information and documentation that we require, in a form acceptable to us.
- 2.2 We may at our complete discretion refuse to register any Bidder or delay registration if we are not satisfied with the information or documentation provided or the Bidder's creditworthiness, including if the Bidder has previously defaulted in paying for or collecting purchases.
- 2.3 If you are a returning Bidder, we may at our discretion require that you provide updated identity and other documentation before permitting you to bid in an auction.
- 2.4 We do not undertake to register any Bidder in time for any specific auction.
- 2.5 If you are bidding on behalf of another person, you will need to disclose such information in advance of the auction and that person may also need to complete our registration and client due diligence process and provide us with written authority to accept bids from you on his/her/its behalf. If we are not informed of these arrangements in advance of an auction or do not have clear written authority in place, you will be deemed to be bidding as principal for your own account.
- 2.6 If you intend to bid on a Lot using pre-approved financing by a third party lender, you must notify us at the time of registration or at the time of securing financing, obtain our agreement to the arrangements and provide any further information or documentation that we may require.
- 2.7 You may de-register at any time on request. This will leave any accrued rights and obligations unaffected.

3. Bidding procedures

- 3.1 You may bid in any of the following ways following successful registration to bid:
 - 3.1.1 in person;
 - 3.1.2 by telephone, in which case you must make such arrangements at least 24 hours before the start of the auction;
 - 3.1.3 by leaving a commission bid at least 1 hour before the start of the auction, which we may execute on your behalf. Commission bids will be accepted with reference to our standard bidding increments and any off-increment bids may be reduced to the next increment immediately below at the Auctioneer's sole discretion. Neither we nor our employees or agents will be responsible for any failure to execute your commission bid. Where two or more commission bids at the same level are recorded we have the right, at our sole discretion, to prefer one over any others, without providing any reasons; or

- 3.1.4 online bidding via our BidFORUM platform or via another Bidding Platform. In the case of bids via BidFORUM our Website Terms of Use and for bids via another Bidding Platform, any additional terms of use or conditions imposed by the third party provider including any additional charges will also apply.
- 3.2 The Bidder placing the highest bid for a Lot accepted by the Auctioneer on the fall of the hammer is the successful Buyer and bound by the contract formed pursuant to Clause 1.2 and governed by the Conditions of Business pursuant to Clause 1.3, unless the Auctioneer has for any reason at its/his/her option refused the bid, reopened the bidding or cancelled the sale and reoffered the Lot. Any dispute about a bid will be settled at our sole discretion, giving due consideration to any circumstances and acting reasonably. We may settle disputes at our discretion in any way we think fit including by re-offering the Lot and our decision will be final. If there is any discrepancy between our record of an auction and the information provided in any communication to you, our record will prevail.
- 3.3 We may withdraw a Lot at any time prior to or during the sale of the Lot. We will not be liable to you for our decision to withdraw a Lot.
- 3.4 We may bid on Lots on behalf of the Seller up to one bidding increment below the Reserve.
- 3.5 We may at our sole discretion refuse to accept any bid.
- 3.6 We do not accept responsibility for any bids missed by the Auctioneer.
- 3.7 Bidding increments will be set at the Auctioneer's sole discretion.

4. Technical issues

We are not responsible for any technical problems that you may experience while connecting to and using our Website and/or BidFORUM or participating in any auctions, including but not limited to any loss of internet connection, problems with using our bidding software or any hardware faults. We do not accept any liability for any delay or failure in placing a bid, any failure to execute bids or any errors or omissions owing to technical failings, whether on our part or yours.

5. Inspection of Lots

- 5.1 The Auctioneer provides descriptions, Estimates, illustrations and condition reports (on request) to assist Bidders in deciding whether to bid on a Lot but subject to Clause 8 accepts no responsibility for their accuracy.
- 5.2 Each Lot offered for sale is available for inspection. We strongly recommend that you inspect any Lots that you are interested in prior to bidding at the auction. You are responsible for your decision to bid for a particular Lot and for undertaking your own due diligence in relation to the Lot. If you bid on a Lot, you will be deemed to have carefully inspected the Lot and satisfied yourself regarding its quality and condition.

6. Estimates

Estimates are provided as a guide to what, in our opinion, the sale price of a Lot is reasonably likely to be. The Estimate is not a guarantee of what the actual selling price or value may be and cannot be relied on as such. The estimate does not take into account Premium, VAT or any other applicable charges.

7. Seller's warranties

- 7.1 The Seller warrants to us and to you in relation to each Lot that:
 - 7.1.1 the Seller is the owner of the Lot for sale or a joint owner of the Lot acting with the co-owner's consent or, if acting on the owner's behalf, is authorised by the owner to offer and sell the Lot at auction;
 - 7.1.2 the Seller is able to transfer clear legal title to the Lot, subject to any restrictions set out in the Lot description, to you free from any third party rights or claims; and

- 7.1.3 as far as the Seller is aware, the main characteristics of the Lot set out in the auction catalogue (as amended by any notice displayed in the saleroom, on our Website or any Bidding Platform or announced by the Auctioneer at the auction) are correct.
- 7.2 If any of the Seller's warranties above are found not to be true, neither we nor the Seller will be liable, under any circumstances, to pay you any sums over and above the Price.
- 7.3 Save as expressly set out above, all other warranties, conditions or other terms which might have effect between the Seller and you or be implied or incorporated by statute, common law or otherwise are excluded to the fullest extent that they can be lawfully excluded.

8. Descriptions and condition

- 8.1 Our descriptions of the Lot will be based on: (a) information provided to us by the Seller of the Lot (for which we are not liable); and (b) our opinion (as set out in Clause 8.3).
- 8.2 We will give you a number of opportunities to view and inspect the Lots before the auction. You (including any agents or consultants acting on your behalf) must satisfy yourself about the accuracy of any description of a Lot and of any other characteristics of a Lot relevant to your decision to place a bid. We shall not be responsible for your failure to properly inspect a Lot.
- 8.3 Any statements by us about any Lot, including but not limited to its authorship, attribution, authenticity, origin, date, age, period, culture, provenance, source, material, condition or estimated selling price, whether oral or in writing, are matters of our opinion genuinely held but are not to be relied on as a statement of fact or contractual representation. We do not warrant that we have carried out a detailed inspection of each Lot. Any references to dimensions or weight are approximate only.
- 8.4 Any photographs that we provide are for identification purposes only and may not reveal a Lot's condition or be accurate in colour or other features.
- 8.5 Please note that the majority of Lots sold by the Auctioneer are second-hand and will not be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" at the time of the auction. Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of any Lot.
- 8.6 Condition reports are provided by us free of charge (on request) as a guide for the Bidder/Buyer but are not intended to be exhaustive assessments of an item's condition and may not refer to all flaws or defects in an item. Furthermore, the Auctioneer and its employees are not trained conservators and can only offer their opinion on condition. You must rely on your own assessment or independent professional advice in relation to the condition of any Lot.

9. Our charges

- 9.1 As Buyer, you will pay us:
 - 9.1.1 the Hammer Price;
 - 9.1.2 Premium of 25% of the Hammer Price up to a Hammer Price of £300,000 plus 20% of the Hammer Price from £300,001 to £3,000,000 plus 12.5% of the Hammer Price exceeding £3,000,000 plus VAT thereon (as set out in Clause 11);
 - 9.1.3 any VAT, Import VAT or other duties, fees or taxes applicable to the Lot (as set out at Clause 11);
 - 9.1.4 any artist's resale right royalty payable on the sale of the Lot (as set out at Clause 12);
 - 9.1.5 any additional charges payable by a late paying or defaulting Buyer under these Terms of Sale; and
 - 9.1.6 in respect of bids placed through certain Bidding Platforms operated by third party service providers, a charge of 5% of the Hammer Price plus VAT if applicable, together the "Price".

10. Buyer's warranties

- 10.1 You warrant to us that:
 - 10.1.1 any client due diligence information or documentation provided to us in accordance with Clause 2.1 is and continues to be true and accurate.
 - 10.1.2 the funds used to purchase the Lot are not the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - 10.1.3 you are not engaged in, or under investigation for, and have not been previously charged for or convicted of any offences in relation to money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour;
 - 10.1.4 you are not subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or any other restrictions prohibiting you from doing business in the United Kingdom;
 - 10.1.5 if you are purchasing a Lot on behalf of a third party, you have:
 - a. complied with any applicable anti-money laundering and terrorist financing laws and regulations and conducted appropriate client due diligence on the third party ultimate buyer, have obtained and kept a record of documents required to establish that person's identity, and have no reason to suspect or believe that he/she/it is engaged in money laundering, terrorist financing, tax evasion, fraud or other criminal behaviour or subject to trade sanctions, embargoes or other restrictions prohibiting that person from doing business in the United Kingdom or that the funds provided by the third party are the proceeds of any criminal activity, including tax evasion;
 - b. you have authority to bid on that Lot on behalf of your principal; and
 - c. you have been placed in funds by your principal to cover the Price and any additional fees and charges

11. VAT and other duties

- 11.1 You shall be solely responsible for ascertaining the overall cost of your bid and paying any applicable VAT and other fees, taxes or duties payable in addition to the Hammer Price and Premium for a Lot.
- 11.2 We will charge VAT and other duties, fees and taxes at the current rate at the date of the auction. Please see the symbols used in the auction catalogue and our General Information for Buyers at Auction for an explanation of what those symbols mean.
- 11.4 It is your responsibility to establish whether a Lot may be subject to export restrictions, duties, taxes or fees.
- 11.5 Please note that Lots (in particular second-hand Lots) are unlikely to be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" (i.e. as you see them at the time of the auction). Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of second-hand Lots which the inspection of a Lot by the Buyer ought to have revealed.

12. Artist's resale royalty

- 12.1 Works by certain artists sold in the EU are subject to royalty fees accruing to the artist or their estate. The fees are levied in Euros on a sliding scale relative to Hammer Price and capped at €12,500 per item. We will collect these fees from you on behalf of the artist and add the GBP Sterling equivalent amount to your invoice calculated at the date of the auction by reference to the closing rate of exchange of the Bank of England.
- 12.2 Lots that may be subject to artist's resale right are marked in the catalogue and on our Website with the symbol: ARR.
- 12.3 If applicable, artist's resale right royalty (in Euros) is charged at:
 - 4% of the Hammer Price up to €50,000
 - 3% of the Hammer Price from €50,001 to €200,000
 - 1% of the Hammer Price from €200,001 to €350,000
 - 0.5% of the Hammer Price from €350,001 to €500,000
 - 0.25% of the Hammer Price above €500,000, subject to an overall cap of €12,500.

13. Payment

13.1 Following your successful bid on a Lot you will:

13.1.1 immediately give to us, if not already provided to our satisfaction, any further proof of identity or other information that we may require; and

13.1.2 unless we have agreed otherwise and subject to the terms of any Pledge, pay to us the Price within 3 Business Days of the date of the auction in cleared funds in GBP Sterling any way that we agree to accept payment including in cash (for which there is an aggregate upper limit of £8,000 for all purchases made in any auction). Please see our 'Make a Payment' page at <https://www.forumauctions.co.uk/makepayment?Itemid=363> for further information about how to make a payment. A 3% fee is applied to payments made by all company credit cards and personal cards issued by banks outside the EU.

13.2 If payment is late, we reserve the right to charge interest on the Price or any part thereof in accordance with Clause 15.1.5.

13.3 If you owe us any money, we may use any payment made by you to repay prior debts before applying such monies towards your purchase of the Lot(s).

13.4 All Lots sold will be invoiced in the name of the registered Bidder at the address given to us at the time of registration and cannot be transferred to other names or addresses.

14. Ownership and collection of Lots

14.1 Ownership of a Lot will transfer to you only on receipt by us of the Price in full and in cleared funds provided your continuing compliance with Clause 10.

14.2 Risk of loss or damage to the Lot will pass to you at the fall of the Hammer or when you have otherwise purchased the Lot.

14.3 You may not claim or collect a Lot until you have paid for it and we are satisfied with the client due diligence information and documentation that you have provided. We may refuse to accept payment or release the Lot to you if we require further information or verification.

14.4 If you have purchased a Lot using third party pre-approved financing, with our knowledge and agreement, and the Lot remains subject to a Pledge, we will hold the Lot until we receive confirmation from the beneficiary of the Pledge that we are authorised to release the Lot. In such cases, time starts to run under Clauses 14.5 to 14.7 below from the date that we inform you that the Lot can be released, rather than the date of the auction.

14.5 You must (at your own expense) collect any Lots that you have purchased and paid for no later than 10 Business Days following the date of the auction.

14.6 If you do not collect the Lot within the time period at Clause 14.5, you will be responsible for removal, storage and insurance charges in relation to that Lot which will be no less than £1.50 per Lot per day.

14.7 If you do not collect a Lot that you have paid for within 45 days of the date of the auction, we may resell the Lot by auction or private treaty with the Estimate and Reserve set at our discretion. We will pay the proceeds of any such sale to you, but will deduct any storage charges or other sums that we have incurred in the storage and sale of the Lot. We reserve the right to charge you a selling commission at our standard rates on any such resale of the Lot.

15. Remedies for non-payment

15.1 If you fail to comply with these Terms of Sale, we may (acting on behalf of the Seller and ourselves) pursue one or more of the following measures:

15.1.1 take action against you to recover the Price and/or pursue damages for breach of contract, including any fees, legal expenses or other costs that we incur;

15.1.2 reverse the sale of the Lot to you and/or any other Lots sold to you (in which case we may charge you an administration fee of £150 plus VAT per Lot or, if lower, the Price of the Lot);

15.1.3 resell the Lot by auction or private treaty (in which case you will have to pay any deficit between the Price for the Lot and the Hammer Price we sell it for as well as the charges outlined in Clauses 14.6 and 15.1.5 and any other costs and expenses or legal fees incurred by us in reselling the Lot or any loss to us of Seller's commission). Please note that if we resell the Lot for a higher amount than the Hammer Price on the sale of the Lot to you, the additional sale proceeds will be paid to the Seller and we will retain any increase in Premium;

15.1.4 remove, store and insure the Lot at your expense until you pay the Price together with any removal, storage and insurance fees as set out in Clause 14.6 or we agree alternative arrangements;

15.1.5 charge interest at a rate of 1.5% per month on the Price or any part remaining unpaid after 10 Business Days have elapsed from the day of the auction;

15.1.6 assist the Seller in pursuing you for payment and/or damages including by revealing your identity and contact details;

15.1.7 keep the Lot, any other Lot sold to you or any item(s) consigned for sale by you as security for payment until you pay the Price;

15.1.8 apply any payments or part payments made by you towards part settlement of the Price due for the Lot or any other Lot purchased by you, or to any shortfall on the resale of any Lot pursuant to Clause 15.1.3 or to any outstanding removal, storage or insurance charges owed by you to us in relation to any Lot that you have purchased or to any loss or damage suffered by us as a result of your failure to comply with these Terms of Sale;

15.1.9 refuse to allow you to register to bid, reject or ignore bids from you or your agent at future auctions or impose conditions before we accept bids from you;

15.1.10 offset any amounts due from you against any amounts that we may owe you, including if we sell any Lots for you; and/or 15.1.11 take any other action we consider necessary.

16. Health and safety

Although we take reasonable precautions regarding health and safety, you are on our premises at your own risk. Please note the lay-out of the premises and security arrangements. Neither we nor our employees or agents are responsible for the safety of you or your property when you visit our premises, unless you suffer any injury to your person or damage to your property as a result of our, our employees' or our agents' negligence or wilful default.

17. Export and import restrictions

17.1 Exporting a Lot out of the United Kingdom or importing it into another country may be subject to legal requirements and restrictions depending on factors such as the type of goods, their age and monetary value and destination. It is your responsibility to ascertain what the requirements are in relation to any Lot and obtain the necessary export or import licence where applicable.

17.2 Lots made of restricted organic matter or endangered species are identified in the catalogue. These may be subject to prohibitions on export or import and otherwise may require licences. You are solely responsible for identifying and obtaining any necessary licence. The information provided in our catalogue reflects our reasonable opinion at the date of publication but is intended as guidance only and neither the Auctioneer nor the Seller make any representation or give any warranty as to whether any Lot is subject to a prohibition or restriction on export or import.

17.3 You acknowledge that your purchase of the Lot and fulfilment of your obligations under our Conditions of Business is not conditional on successfully obtaining an export, import or other licence or permit for any Lot and that you will pay for and collect the Lot regardless of whether a licence has been or is likely to be granted. We will not cancel your purchase of a Lot if for any reason it is refused a licence or is seized or confiscated by government authorities.

- 17.4 We may on request assist you with applying for a licence to export your Lot(s) out of the United Kingdom and will charge a fee for doing so to cover the costs of our time and out of pocket expenses.

18. Deliberate Forgeries

- 18.1 You may return any Lot which is found to be a Deliberate Forgery to us within twelve months of the date of the auction provided that you return the Lot to us at your expense in the same condition as when it was released to you, accompanied by a written report by a recognised expert on the subject matter identifying the Lot as a Deliberate Forgery with reference to the catalogue description and fully explaining the reasoning behind any conclusions drawn in the report.
- 18.2 If we are reasonably satisfied that the Lot is a Deliberate Forgery, we will cancel the sale of the Lot and refund the Price to you save that if any of the following circumstances apply:
- 18.2.1 the catalogue description reflected the accepted view of experts as at the date of the auction;
- 18.2.2 the Lot can only be shown to be a Deliberate Forgery on the basis of scientific examination which was not available at the time of the auction or in the circumstances was not practicable or reasonable to expect;
- 18.2.3 you were not the original Buyer of the Lot named on the invoice for the Lot issued at the time of the sale; or
- 18.2.4 you personally are not able to transfer clear legal title in and right to possession of the Lot to us, free of any claim, interest or restriction by anyone else, on the date of the return of the Lot to us, you will have no right to cancel the sale or receive a refund.
- 18.3 Should you successfully exercise your right under this Clause 18, we will not refund to you more than the Price for any Lot and will not in any circumstances be liable to you for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity.
- ## 19. Limitation of our liability to you
- 19.1 We give no warranties in relation to any statements or representations made or information given in relation to any Lot by us or our employees or agents whether oral or in writing and accept no liability in connection therewith, including in relation to any errors or omissions unless Clause 18 applies.
- 19.2 We accept no liability in relation to any of the Seller's warranties at Clause 7 or any breach by the Seller of their obligations under our Conditions of Business.
- 19.3 We do not accept any responsibility to any Bidders for any failure to register a Bidder or any acts or omissions in relation to the sale of Lots and the conduct of our auctions and will not be liable for any loss, damage, expense, costs, loss of profit, loss of business or loss of opportunity as a result of participating in our auctions.
- 19.4 If we are found to be liable to you for any reason, our liability will be limited to the Price as paid by you to us for any Lot.
- 19.5 Notwithstanding the above, nothing in these Terms of Sale shall limit our liability (or that of our employees or agents) for:
- 19.5.1 death or personal injury resulting from negligence;
- 19.5.2 fraudulent misrepresentation; or
- 19.5.3 any liability which cannot be excluded by law.

20. Notices

- 20.1 All notices or other communications between you and us regarding our Conditions of Business must be in writing and may be given:
- 20.1.1 by delivering it by hand or sending by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery or pre-paid airmail (to us at our registered office address at Ingate Works, 4 Ingate Place, Battersea, London SW8 3NS or to you at the address you provided to us at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing); or
- 20.1.2 by email (to us at office@forumauctions.co.uk or to you at the email address provided by you at the time of registration unless we are advised otherwise in writing).
- 20.2 Notices will be deemed to have been received:
- 20.2.1 if delivered by hand, on the day of delivery;
- 20.2.2 if sent by first class pre-paid post or Recorded Delivery, 2 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting;
- 20.2.3 if sent by pre-paid airmail, 5 Business Days after posting, exclusive of the day of posting; or
- 20.2.4 if sent by email, at the time of transmission unless sent on a day which is not a Business Day or after 17.00 in the place of receipt in which case they will be deemed to have been received on the next Business Day.

21. Data Protection

We will hold and process any personal data in relation to you in accordance with our Privacy Policy which can be accessed at: www.forumauctions.co.uk/privacy-policy.

22. General

- 22.1 We may at our sole discretion, though acting reasonably, refuse any person admission to our premises or attendance at our auctions.
- 22.2 Any rights we have to claim against you for breach of our Conditions of Business may be used by either us, our employees or agents, or the Seller, their employees or agents, as appropriate. Other than as set out in this Clause, no other person will have any rights to enforce the terms of our Conditions of Business.
- 22.3 Each of the Clauses of these Terms of Sale operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining Clauses will remain in full force and effect.
- 22.4 Except as otherwise stated in these Terms of Sale, each of our rights and remedies: (a) are in addition to and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies under these Terms of Sale or general law; and (b) may be waived only in writing and specifically. Our delay in exercising or non-exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale is not a waiver of that or any other right. Our partial exercise of any right under these Terms of Sale will not preclude any further or other exercise of that right or any other right under these Terms of Sale. Our waiver of a breach of any term of these Terms of Sale will not operate as a waiver of breach of any other term or any subsequent breach of that term.
- 22.5 Our Conditions of Business and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them (including any non-contractual claims or disputes) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
